BUT NO ROMANCES

8 Plan 10-Year Trip Sailing 'Round World

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Eight persons, including three teen-agers and two younger children, will sail from Sausalito one week from today aboard the white schooner Fairweather on a trip around the world they expect to last 10 years.

The eight are the six members of the William R. Adams family of Saratoga, 18-year-old Lisa Bachelis of 191 San Carlos Avenue, Sausalito and Verne Hanson, 29, of Hawaii.

Adams, who owns the Luray

Co., a plumbing, heating and sheet metal firm in Saratoga, will be the skipper. His family includes his wife, Suttie; three sons, Ricky, 19; John, 16, and Pat, 7, and daughter Suttie II, 10.

Sound rules have been prescribed for the youngsters' education. Each will study four hours a day, six days a week while at sea. In port, this rule may be relaxed somewhat.

Rule number two is "no romance." Anyone who has a romance gets shipped home, said Adams.

Another rule is no schedules. We may pull into a port for three days and decide to stay three months," Adams said. "We think we will reach Hong-kong in two or three years. We will spend three or four years in the Mediterranean."

Miss Bachelis and Ricky Adams, both freshmen at College of Marin, will study correspondence courses from University of California. Ricky is studying civil engineering and Miss Bachelis, anthropology.

The other three youngsters will study under the tutelage of Mrs. Adams. Ricky ran up the rigging to the top of the mainsail like a monkey yesterday afternoon as the sailing octette were getting the yacht ready. The Adams family sailed the 58-foot yacht 6,000 miles from Florida to San Francisco Bay last year. The yacht has been tied up in Sausalito since last March.

AF Worker Dies After Ladder Fall

Francis B. Helm, 60, of Novato, was killed yesterday when he fell from a ladder at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Helm, a construction and maintenance civilian employee, fell about 25 feet when the ladder he was climbing slipped. He was attempting to reach the top of a hangar to inspect construction work when the accident happened about 3 p.m.

He was dead on arrival at the base hospital. An autopsy was being performed today by County Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

Helm had been employed by the government for many years. He was born in Bakersfield, lived in Santa Rosa for some time and came to Novato about five years ago, where he lived at 9 Sunset Court.

He was a member of the Novato chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and served in the Army in Europe in World War I.

He is survived by his wife, Esther; two brothers, De Witt in Santa Rosa and Home Helm in Knights Landing, Yolo County.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Redwood Chapel, Novato.

STATE PACT NEXT STEP

101 Widening Plan Given Approval

The San Rafael City Council last night accepted engineer Daniel Coleman's plan for widening Highway 101 through the city.

It will be used as a basis for negotiations with the California Division of Highways in drawing up a freeway agreement.

The vote of 4 to 0 (Councilman Fred Jensen absent) followed a one-hour hearing on the plan before some 50 persons.

"We will have to horse-trade on each of the 37 variations proposed by Coleman to the state's original plan," declared Mayor John F. McInnis.

Dominican area residents again protested the proposed Linden Lane offramp and asked that it be moved north to the Puerto Suello Hill.

E. M. Shanley of 1604 Grand Avenue, a director of the Community Preservation League, made up of Dominican residents, asked who wanted the Linden Lane offramp. He said it would bring too much traffic in the residential Dominican area.

Coleman said the Linden Lane offramp itself was not a major concern to the plan, but improvement of the Linden Lane underpass was essential to intracity traffic.

Councilman Louis H. Baar said he thought the northbound offramp should be moved to the proposed diamond interchange at Puerto Suello which is only about one-third of a mile farther north.

"We will have to argue these points out with the Division of Highways," declared the mayor. "If they will rebuild the Linden Lane underpass, even though it doesn't serve freeway traffic, and will construct the offramp at Puerto Suello, I would accept that."

Coleman said placing the off-ramp at Puerto Suello would mean taking more homes and creating a possible hazardous slide condition.

Letters were received from the Building Trades Council and R. F. Cuthbert of Cuthbert's Blueprint Service urging action by the city council on the freeway location.

Wholesaler J. B. Rice asked the council to accept the plan to "give up a chance to move

Goldberg Calls Session On Airline Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The flight engineers strike tightened a strangling noose around the nation's air travel today. Three lines were closed and losses to each of the affected carriers was estimated at one million dollars or more a day.

Trans World, American and Eastern halted all operations and started to lay off 84,000 employees. Pan American, National and Western kept up token service.

In Washington, Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg called in for conference the principal figures in the five-day-old wildcat strike.

The White House announced that President John F. Kennedy is working with Goldberg in an effort to get the engineers back on the job but gave no details.

Redwood High Planning 9-Period Day Next Fall

Redwood High School will go on a nine-period day next fall to cope with an expected enrollment of 1,578 pupils—378 over capacity.

Students will attend classes on a double session more "severe" than the current slip session. Principal Donald Kreps announced.

The district board last night reaffirmed its intention to run the school on this basis for 1961-62.

Each period will be reduced from 55 to 50 minutes, Kreps said.

The nine-period day will begin at 7:45 a.m. and end at 4:35 p.m. All juniors and seniors will begin classes at 7:45 and leave at 1:50. Freshman and sophomores will begin school at 10:40 and continue to 4:35.

Only for three periods during the day will all students be on campus at the same time.

Everyone will have the same lunch period—from 12:25 to 12:55.

Redwood this year is running on a seven-period "slip session" day, beginning at 7:35 and ending at 3:05. More than 200 juniors and seniors arrive early and leave early. Students take a six-period day, but some voluntarily take a seventh period. They may continue to take seven periods next year, too, Kreps said.

Passage of the three-million-dollar bond issue in the April 18 election, proposed to enlarge the district's facilities, would have no effect on the 1961-62 year, it was noted. Construction could not be completed in time to ease the load on Redwood next fall.

FARMER JONES, PLEASE MEET MRS. HOUSEWIFE

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—California's consumer counsel has asked farmers to help restore farmer-consumer communication broken down by modern marketing methods.

Mrs. Helen Nelson of Mill Valley complained to the State Board of Agriculture yesterday that the consumer no longer has anyone from whom to ask advice on the quality of products.

"We feel farmers are paid according to the quality of the products they raise," Mrs. Nelson said. "We want this to be passed on to us."

She called for identification of quality grades on packages and cans. As it is, she said, a housewife now has no way of differentiating between a can of peaches that would make a good dessert and one that would be better in a pie.

"Perhaps this can be communicated on labels," she said, "since we can no longer talk to each other."

She said that without any guides, housewives must choose products as they would choose "the best number to play at Las Vegas."

Kite 'String' Blacks Out Novato Area

A kite with a wire "string" being flown by two young Novato boys yesterday cut off electricity to about 200 homes when it tangled with two high-tension wires.

Five-year-old Joseph Secchitano of 826 Pine Street suffered slight electrical burns on his hand and the soles of his feet. John Frank, 12, of 860 Pine, was unhurt.

The kite and its string burned out a 12,000 volt line at 5:20 p.m. at Center and Diablo Streets in Novato.

"I let go real fast and so did John," Joe said today. The kite continued on to hit a 60,000-volt line at Diablo and South Novato Boulevard a few minutes later.

Electricity was cut off for up to an hour in some areas. Electricity at Novato Hospital was off for about 45 minutes. A generator at the hospital, kept for such emergencies, would not operate and was being checked today. There were no emergencies at the hospital during the time and little in-

Auto Misses Curve Near Stinson Beach

Two young Navy nuclear power students were killed and three were seriously injured when their car went off Shoreline Highway at an S-curve south of Stinson Beach and plunged 450 feet down a cliff last night.

Killed were:

David B. McAvoy, 21, electronics technician third class of St. Petersburg, Fla., the driver.

Norman J. Storebo, 21, communications technician third class of Bruno, Minn.

Injured were: Charles F. Burkhardt Jr., 21, electronics technician second class, of New Orleans. He was in critical condition at Marin General Hospital today with head injuries. Larry Livingston, 19, electronics technician third class, of Chesterfield, S.C., bruises and sprained right ankle. Darryl G. Wilson, 21, electronics technician second class of Draper, N.C., cuts of head and face.

Livingston and Wilson were transferred to Oak Knoll Naval Hospital in Oakland after emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

All were attending the Navy's nuclear power school at the Mare Island Navy Yard.

California Highway Patrolman Raymond V. Kirner was treated at Marin General Hospital for exhaustion after the hazardous rescue of the survivors. Rescuers descended over a route a mile in length to get to the point 450 feet below the cliff where the car was wrecked.

All the youths were thrown out of the car as it tumbled down the cliff. Only one was able to move later or to give report of what had happened.

He was Livingston, who was thrown 40 feet clear of the car near the beginning of its descent. Despite injury to an ankle he crawled back up to the road and hobbled a mile and a half to a Stinson Beach home where he telephoned for help. The patrol and sheriff's deputies responded.

Livingston later told the patrol the group had picnicked

Corte Madera Names New Council Member

Bud Cole, 33, president of the Mariners Cove Improvement Assn. and a Corte Madera resident for two years, was appointed to the town council last night.

Cole will fill the unexpired term of William R. Hansen, who resigned from the council last month.

A merchandiser and analyst for Levi Strauss Co. in San Francisco, Cole came to Corte Madera from Sausalito. Prior to that, he and his wife, Clarissa, lived in Portland, Ore., where Cole served on the disaster commission and was instrumental in drawing up the Portland general plan in 1957.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst also appointed Cole to serve on the public works, finance and health and welfare committees. Cole's term will expire in April, 1962.

The Coles, who have no children, live at 57 Spindrift Drive in Mariner's Cove.

Mayor Colthurst appointed Donald A. Jensen of 90 Granada Drive, to serve on the park and recreation commission.

Jensen, 45, is a designer with W. and J. Sloan, San Francisco home furnishings firm. He served last year on a citizens' committee to study building needs for the Reed School District.

He and his wife, Marian, live at 90 Granada Drive. They have two daughters, Karen, 17, a Redwood High School senior, and Barbara, eighth grader at Reed School.

Jensen has lived in Corte Madera since 1958. He will fill the unexpired term of Morton Simon, who retired from the commission two months ago. His term will expire on June 1, 1963.

Another vacancy on the park and recreation commission was created last night with the resignation of John R. Maurer. Mayor Colthurst has not yet appointed a replacement for Maurer, whose term would expire in June.

U.N. Council Approves Move To Avert Congo Civil War

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Soviets bowed to the pressure of Asian and African opinion today and permitted Security Council approval of a resolution authorizing the United Nations to use force if necessary to prevent civil war in the Congo.

Even before the resolution's adoption one of its chief targets—Katanga President Moise Tshombe—had rejected a key provision calling for withdrawal from the Congo of all Belgian military and political advisers. They supply the working brains of Tshombe's provincial army and administration.

The vote on the resolution, which was sponsored by the council's three Asian-African members was 9-0, with the United States on the winning side. Despite its bitter opposition to the U.N. operation in the Congo and Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld's direction of it, the Soviet Union abstained, apparently unwilling to incur the anger of the uncommitted Asian and African nations by a veto. France also abstained.

Shortly before the vote on the Asian-African peace plan, the council smashed down, 8-1, a Soviet resolution calling for an end to the U.N. operation in the Congo within a month and for the dismissal of Hammarskjöld.

Shortly before 4 a.m. the 11-nation body rejected an Asian-African resolution condemning atrocities and assassinations in the Congo. That resolution was prompted by the announcement Monday that six associates of slain Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba had been executed in South Kasai Province after deportation from Leopoldville by Premier Joseph Ileo's government.

The resolution failed to get the seven votes necessary for adoption after the Soviet Union, with its 93rd and 94th vetoes, killed two U. S. amendments aimed to keep Leopoldville, Katanga and South Kasai from being singled out as atrocity centers while Stanleyville, the seat of the pro-Communist Lumumbist regime, went unmentioned.

The final vote was 6-0 for the resolution, with the United States, Britain, Nationalist China, France and Turkey abstaining.

Ceylon, Liberia and the U.A.R. sponsored the winning plan to head off civil war and the losing proposal to condemn the assassinations, with the backing of 17 other Asian-African countries and Yugoslavia.

The peace plan also calls on all countries to keep military personnel from going to the Congo, provides for an investigation of the killing of Lu-mumba and envisages the convening of Parliament and the removal of Congolese troops from politics through retraining.

Hammarskjöld welcomed the resolution's adoption. He declared it gave "a stronger and clearer framework for United Nations action." He also called for more troops to build up the thinning U.N. Congo force.

President Presents Demos 16 Bills He Wants Passed Now

WASHINGTON (AP)—President John F. Kennedy today gave Democratic congressional leaders a list of 16 bills he wants to have priority in the legislative program. It is topped by extension of unemployment compensation.

The leaders said they promised the president speedy action.

"I think now that we are going to have full steam ahead," House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) told reporters after the breakfast meeting of House and Senate leaders at the White House.

The top measure on Kennedy's program is already getting consideration in the House Ways and Means Committee. This bill would extend unemployment compensation benefits for idle men whose jobless pay had expired by last October.

The next three items among the president's proposals are additional federal aid to the dependent children of unemployed fathers, improvements in Social Security benefits and a 390-million dollar bill for aid in redeveloping depressed areas.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said of matching importance will be a general farm message, proposed changes in former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's budget, and water and natural resources legislation.

The other bills on the 16-point list were:

The support and control program for feed grains, increasing the $1 minimum wage, federal aid to education, health care for the aged under social security, aid for college education, aid for medical education and research, federal support for expansion of community health facilities, extension of the Government Reorganization Act, ratification of U.S. affiliation with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, creation of 59 new federal judgeships, establishment of an office of international travel and easing of restrictions on trade with Iron Curtain countries.

Despite Republican opposition to some proposals, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana predicted Kennedy's measures will get speedy action in Congress.

He noted that the Senate had passed on a voice vote yesterday a bill to set up a United States travel service to attract foreign tourists to this country.

The bill would authorize the government to spend five million dollars the first year on active travel promotion. The measure is aimed at reducing gold outflow.

Congressional movement was developing on these major items:

1. Education—In the House, Rayburn gave a go-ahead signal to the federal aid to education program the president sent to Congress yesterday. Rayburn, who opposes federal assistance for payment of teachers' salaries, said he would not "resist" House consideration of a measure containing both this provision and federal aid for classroom construction.

House Education subcommittee hearings, probably starting this week, on the school and college sections of the 5.7-billion-dollar program.

2. Emergency unemployment aid extension—The House Ways and Means Committee starts closed door sessions aimed at getting a bill in shape for House action late this week or early next.

3. Aid for depressed areas—Mansfield said he expects to bring a bill for the aid of depressed areas before the Senate next week.

The bill was introduced early in the Senate and a companion measure went into the House yesterday. It would set up a 300-million-dollar revolving fund for loans to help communities expand or attract industry and additional millions for retraining of workers, construction of public utilities and planning.

4. Social Security—Also introduced yesterday in the House was the administration bill to provide optional social security retirement for men at 62, higher minimum and widows' payments and easing of requirements for coming under the old age insurance and disability retirement provisions. The cost would be an additional one-fourth of 1 per cent tax on employer and employee.

5. Minimum wage increase—A House Labor subcommittee plans to complete hearings today on the administration proposal to increase the minimum by stages from the present $1 to $1.25 an hour and bring additional millions of employees under the wage-hour coverage.

TWO YOUTHS ELUDE LONDON TOWER GUARDS

LONDON (UPI)—British security officials were embarrassed today over the disclosure that two teen-agers twice slipped in and out of the heavily-guarded tower of London, which houses the crown jewels.

Robin Flanagan and Derek Brown, both 18, made a virtual playground of the awesome fortress by gaining illegal entry twice over the weekend—much to the consternation of the guards.

Although the youths successfully broke into the tower, officials pointed out that the place where the jewels are kept is more heavily guarded by police patrols and burglar alarms. They added that the crown jewels, which are worth an estimated 1.4 million dollars, were not in danger at any time.

Labor Mogul Says Unions Losing Ground

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A report that organized labor is losing ground in making union members of American workers brought a self-appraisal in the AFL-CIO today that it could spell union labor's "obituary."

Organizing director John Livingston told AFL-CIO chiefs gathered here for a winter meeting their unions are staging a losing battle in wooing workers to the union cause.

Livingston reportedly told the AFL-CIO Executive Council at a closed session yesterday that where all the nation's unions had enlisted 40 per cent of organizable workers in the work force five years ago the proportion is now down to 38 per cent.

Canada Visit Planned Soon By President

WASHINGTON (AP)—President John F. Kennedy will visit Canada in what probably will be his first venture outside the United States since taking office.

A date has not been fixed. Kennedy will make the trip in time to address a joint session of the Canadian Parliament before it adjourns. It is expected to wind up in early summer.

Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker announced Kennedy's acceptance of his invitation on return to Ottawa yesterday from a White House visit.

The exchange of visits and a joint statement issued at the White House after Diefenbaker left were indicative of the close relations between the two countries.

In the statement, Kennedy and Diefenbaker reaffirmed the determination of their nations to work together for peace and freedom in the world.

In talking to newsmen in Washington, Diefenbaker in effect rebuked Canadian nationalists. He said Canada "does not intend to be neutralist regardless of the opinions expressed by some people."

Money Can't Buy Family Happiness, Survey Indicates

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A survey of accounting graduates from the University of California at Los Angeles has shown statistically that money can't buy family happiness.

Prof. Harry Simmons asked more than 1,000 accountants who had been graduated from UCLA between 1946 and 1955 whether their work load allowed a satisfactory and well-balanced family life.

In almost all cases, he said, those on the lower end of the income scale reported a better family life than their higher income colleagues.

Ship Changeover
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Luckenbach Steamship Co. plans to discontinue cargo runs between Pacific and Atlantic Coast ports in this country and use its eight ships in foreign trade, starting March 22.

Edgar F. Luckenbach Jr., president of the company, said the decision was necessitated by the failure of the Federal Maritime Administration to grant mortgage insurance for construction of five container ships.

Japan Offers Food
TOKYO (AP)—Japan today offered hungry Communist China rice and other food as a humanitarian gesture.

Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaoka told a news conference the offer, made through the International Red Cross, had no political motive although the government of Premier Hayato Ikeda is trying to expand relations with Peiping short of diplomatic recognition. Japan has diplomatic ties with Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government.

PERCY GRAINGER
Many compositions

Noted Pianist Grainger Dies At 78 In N.Y.

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP)—Percy Grainger, 78, noted composer and pianist, died yesterday.

Grainger, whose smaller compositions and arrangements of English folk tunes brought him fame on two continents, turned out some 400 works for piano, voice, orchestra, chorus and other combinations.

He had lived in semi-retirement for years in this New York City suburban community.

His smaller compositions and arrangements of English folk tunes included such favorites as "Country Gardens," "Molly on the Shore," and "Hand in the Strand," showed originality.

Grainger was born in Melbourne, Australia, July 8, 1882. After a successful career there as a child prodigy he adopted Europe, England especially, as his own.

U.S. Ready To Support Neutral Laos

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is ready to submit all future aid to the royal Laos government to the screening of a neutral nations' watchdog commission.

This evidence of full U.S. support for a genuinely neutral Laos was made known today by authoritative government sources.

They said the offer had been transmitted to King Savang Vatthana of Laos, the Soviet Union and neutral nations in Southeast Asia. The king has called for the neutrality of Laos.

The U.S. action was discussed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk in a 30-minute meeting last night with Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

Rusk gave Menshikov a translation of King Savang's message, proclaiming that Laos "will not join in any military alliance and will not have on its territory either foreign forces or military bases."

U.S. officials said the United States would be prepared to withdraw its more than 100 military advisers now training the royal army and turn over the job to military experts from neutral countries. This proposal would depend upon a cease-fire in the fighting between leftist and government forces.

Waldo Land Triangle Purchase At Auction

A tiny triangle of county property on Waldo Point caused an unexpected auction before the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday.

Winning bidder, against a determined woman resident of the area, was Roger L. Heiser, who needed the bit of land to complete a holding on which he hopes to build a 12-unit three-story apartment house north of Sacramento Avenue in North Sausalito.

Heiser had to go from an initial sealed bid of $50 to an oral bid of $600 to win the land, after which he did a sprint to the bank in order to furnish County Clerk George S. Jones with the money at once.

Opposing bidder was June Leitch of Waldo Point, who with Ara Taylor had entered a sealed bid of $150.

Surprised by this interest, the board called in County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, who said oral bids might be received.

Heiser drew a diagram showing that the property was a triangle of 35-foot base, one side 65 feet long, and the other side a cliff surface about the same length. His application for an adjustment allowing construction of the apartment had been approved by the planning commission and was before the supervisors, who eventually held it up until this afternoon's session.

Advised by Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell that the lowest possible oral bid would be $157.50, Heiser then offered this amount.

"Two hundred dollars," called Miss Leitch, who later declined to tell why she wanted the property.

"Two-fifty," countered Heiser.

Miss Leitch went to $300, Heiser to $400, Miss Leitch to $450, Heiser to $500, Miss Leitch to $525, and Heiser said $600, whereupon Miss Leitch quit with the remark, "That's enough."

The supervisors also:

1. Were invited by San Rafael Mayor John F. McNinis to be his guests at a Friday morning meeting of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, in Berkeley, the board having refused to join. Supervisor Walter R. Castro said he'd try to attend.

2. Approved conduct of a 15-hour radiological detection course at the College of Marin to which both county and city department heads will be invited.

3. Decided on further study of proposals to amend the merit system after receipt of suggestions from W. L. Desmond, as president of the Marin County Employees Assn., stressing desire to put main emphasis on seniority.

4. Declared surplus, for sale as junk, a 1936 pickup truck from the county hospital and farm and a wooden truck-bed of the county fire department.

5. Briefly considered but deferred action on a county salary proposal by Administrator Alan Bruce, including proposal that across-the-board adjustments for cost of living be made every other year — which would exclude the next fiscal year.

6. Approved agreement with Sonoma County for joint construction of Estero Americano bridge near Valley Ford, and plans for reconstruction of the Lucas Valley road between Miller Creek road and county farm.

7. Received, and referred for budget consideration, request for $500 allocation from the California State Chamber of Commerce.

8. Filed request from the Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce suggesting supervisory support of a Redwood Empire Assn. stand for keeping the Shoreline Highway in the state's present freeway system.

9. Heard from the Public Utilities Commission that the Railway Express Agency at Fairfax will be discontinued March 10, with its business to be handled in San Rafael.

Tougher Dog Law Urged In Corte Madera

Corte Madera Town Atty. John B. Ehlen last night snapped at the town's dogs by proposing a "leash law" amendment even tougher on the canines than one already tentatively approved by the council.

The original amendment, accepted by the council after almost 200 citizens had submitted petitions complaining of vicious and troublesome dogs, would have made it necessary for only one person to complain of a dog in order to have him impounded.

The county ordinance, under which the town now operates, requires three complaints, in writing.

Ehlen's amended ordinance, which he admitted was "not ideal," calls for an automatic 14-day impounding of the dog if picked up. The dog would also be examined by a veterinarian and treated if diseased.

If found to be incurably diseased, the dog would be "humanely destroyed."

All treatment and boarding would be at the owner's expense. Furthermore, Ehlen proposed, the name of the person making the complaint be kept confidential.

Corte Madera Council Approves Street Paving

An engineer's recommendation that Sausalito Street between Tamalpais Drive and Buena Vista Avenue be paved to a width of 24 feet was approved last night by the Corte Madera Town Council.

George S. Nolte, civil engineer of San Rafael, told the council he considered impractical a proposed width of 28 feet for the street, which is now as narrow as 12 feet in some places.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow, who also serves as town engineer, said he concurred with Nolte's recommendations. He said he felt the state would approve construction of the street with the use of gasoline tax funds.

The council ordered Nolte to proceed with plans and specifications and instructed Brandow to file the plans with the state for approval. In case of state refusal to accept the street, the work would have to be financed with other funds, Brandow said.

Need for sidewalks on the north side of Paradise Drive approaching the new San Clemente School, scheduled for construction this year, was urged by the Marina Village Improvement Club.

Children from the area, said a letter from the club, have no sidewalk for several blocks along the thoroughfare.

Inasmuch as the Larkspur School District has not yet redistricted the area, the council agreed to communicate with district officials to learn whether children from Marina Village would attend the new school. The sidewalk could be built "within two months" after council approval, Brandow said.

Action on a planning commission recommendation that freestanding signs be left under its jurisdiction was delayed until all councilmen were present.

Councilman Roger F. Morse, originator of the amendment to the zoning ordinance two meetings ago which would give the council final say in the erection of free-standing signs, was absent last night.

A request for a free-standing sign by James Stockman, proprietor of the Edgewater Inn, is being held up until the matter is settled.

A public hearing was set for March 6 at 8 p.m. on a request by the Consumers Cooperative of Berkeley Inc. for rezoning of property in the Meadowsweet area which would permit

RUSTLERS KILL, CARVE HEIFER IN WEST MARIN

Cattle rustlers butchered a heifer on a ranch east of Marshall and took more than $200 worth of meat, sheriff's deputies reported today.

Deputy William S. Christensen reported the slaying occurred either Friday night or Saturday morning on the John J. King and Herbert Cabral ranch east of Marshall.

Blood, viscera and red hair indicated that the heifer had been killed in a gully about 60 yards off Marshall Road.

the cooperative to build a market.

The request was approved last week by the planning commission. The amendment to the zoning ordinance would change from professional and administrative to commercial zoning the property bounded by Tamalpais Drive, Old County Road, Meadowsweet Drive and the Billings-Hutchison office building.

In other action last night, the Corte Madera council:

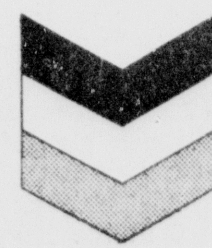

1. Scheduled for March 20 a discussion of a personnel ordinance now being drawn up by Brandow and his staff which would set personnel policy regarding sick leave, vacations, holidays and related matters.

Tam Bond, Kentfield Tax Drives Combined

Campaign workers for the Kentfield School and the Tamalpais Union High School District bond issue will coordinate their efforts, a citizens-organizational meeting decided last night at Wolfe Grade School.

Both issues will go to the voters April 18. Kentfield will ask a 50-cent increase in the general purpose tax rate for an indefinite term, and Tamalpais is seeking approval of a three million dollar bond issue.

Kentfield trustees last week decided to ask for the increase

Contractor Joins Race For Council

Michael McLean, San Rafael general contractor, joined the race for San Rafael City Councilman today.

McLean of 10 Center Street, San Rafael, had six verification deputies appointed by City Clerk W. L. Morgan at 10:30 a.m. to circulate nomination petitions. McLean missed election to the city council in 1959 against Dr. Charles Aby and Fred Jensen by only 600 votes.

He is the second potential candidate to start nomination proceedings. Contractor Joseph Filipo had deputies appointed last week.

Real Estate Office Design Wins Award

A real estate sales office in San Rafael was announced today as one of the 1961 merit award winners of the American Institute of Architects.

The office is that of Marin Bay, Latipae-Perini Co. development at McNear's Point. It was honored as going "beyond mere competence" and "achieving true significance."

A San Francisco firm of architects, including Daniel H. Bushnell II, a former Mill Valleyan, designed the glass-walled building which provides a full sweep view of the Marin Bay golf course, an arm of San Pablo Bay, and rolling hills with Mount Tamalpais looming above them in the far background.

Members of the architect team, besides Bushnell, now a San Francisco resident, are Lun Chan and Camiel Van De Weghe of San Francisco and Ichiro Sasaki of Albany.

Chan and Hensolt of San Francisco was engineer of the building. Landscaping was by Ecko, Dean and Williams. Latipae-Perini was the builder.

The building serves as a display pavilion in connection with sale of Marin Bay lots. Views of the project, a relief map, and a "jigsaw puzzle" map in which each lot is a fitting piece are displayed in it.

Kentfield landscape architect Lawrence Halprin figured in two of the American Institute of Architects awards. He did the landscaping for the nuclear reactor project in Rehovot, Israel, designed by Philip Johnson of New York, which was one of the first honor award winners, and of the Willow Creek Apartments in Palo Alto, designed by John Carl Warnecke and Associates, which won a merit award.

Tam School Aide Suffers Seizure

Robert D. Torrey, 33, director of instruction in the Tamalpais Union High School District, suffered a "mild" heart attack Friday.

He was reported in good condition today at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco. Torrey became ill at a meeting in the office of Supt. Chester G. Carlisle. He left for his home at 12 Seminole Avenue, Corte Madera, and was later taken to the hospital.

Torrey will be confined to the hospital for three weeks, then must convalesce at home for another three weeks, a spokesman said. He is permitted no visitors except his family.

Marinwood Park Plans Discussed

The Marinwood Park and Recreation Commission discussed plans for a community building, firehouse, swimming pool and recreation area on the 10-acre site at Miller and Lucas Valley Roads with San Francisco landscape architect Theodore Osmundson last night.

Architects Osmundson and Staley were hired by the Marinwood Community Services District two weeks ago to draw up plans for the site at a fee of between $1,500 and $2,000.

Recreation commissioners asked Osmundson to present a rough plan of what facilities can be put on the site at a special meeting at 8 p.m. March 6 in the Mary Silveira School.

Tam Trustees Approve More Road Money

The Tamalpais Union High School District board last night agreed to pay up to an additional $3,500 as its share of the Doherty Drive extension project.

The district is participating on a 50-50 basis with the city of Larkspur in the cost of that portion of the road extension on the Redwood High School side of the Corte Madera Creek and the bridge over the creek.

The additional $3,500 will bring the district's share to a maximum of $19,500.

Bids received by the Larkspur City Council Dec. 7 were rejected because they were above estimates. A second bid opening has been scheduled for March 1.

The district board decided to offer $625 to the Fifer interests for a strip of land at the southern boundary of Redwood High School, 65 feet wide and about 1,400 feet long. The property was appraised at that amount. The Fifers at one time asked $1,200 for the strip. The land is usable only for drainage purposes, it was noted.

In other business, the board:

1. Authorized an application for federal funds for the third year of a guidance project in which academically talented students are identified, beginning with an eighth grade testing program and continuing in the freshman year.
2. Adopted a resolution supporting the continuation of Public Law 874, which provides funds to school districts with "federally connected" children.
3. Authorized evening school courses for the spring quarter beginning April 3.
4. Set dates for the 1961 summer school as June 20-July 21.

Class Sizes In Mill Valley To Be Bigger

Class sizes in the eight schools of the Mill Valley School District will be increased Sept. 5, the board of trustees decided last night in a 4-1 vote with trustee Jean F. Rosse dissenting.

Lack of money was the chief reason for voting for larger classes rather than half-day sessions which would have required four additional teachers. The board said it hopes to get by without hiring any additional teachers this fall.

Supt. G. Robert McConnell was directed by the board to increase classes to a maximum of 32 in the first three grades and 36 in grades four through six. Present maximums are 30 for grades one to three and 32 for grades four through six.

The board also decided it could not afford to conduct a summer school program even though more than 600 parents had expressed interest in enrolling their children.

Novato Arrests Theft Suspects

Two Novato men, arrested by Novato police yesterday were in jail charged with the burglary of the General Tire Co. in Petaluma.

William A. Mills, 19, of the 78th Operational Maintenance Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, and Charles F. Cave, 18, 687 Morgan Drive, Raphael Village, were being held by Petaluma authorities.

Officer Wayne Knutla stopped their car after seeing it make an erratic turn. Inside he found various tires, hubcaps and wheels, some still wrapped in their store paper. He notified Petaluma police, who told of the Sunday night burglary at the tire store.

NOVATO READY TO ACCEPT JET FIGHTER

An Air Force F-86 jet fighter was being moved into Novato today—on a truck—in preparation for ceremonies tomorrow which will turn it over to the city.

The plane was being moved from Hamilton Air Force Base where it had been "demilitarized" for presentation to the city.

Ceremonies will begin at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at the Marion School, where the plane will have its home.

School children, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, 4-H clubs and adult service organizations of the city will be represented.

The plane will stand on the school grounds for youngsters to crawl "over, around and through," Hamilton officers noted. It was flown from a National Guard unit at Marin Airport in Baltimore, Md., earlier in the month.

Ross Trustees Delay Action On Recreation

Ross School District trustees last night withheld action on contributing to a Parent-Teacher Assn.-sponsored summer recreation program until they find out who will be in charge of the program.

Mrs. Charles Doyle of the Ross P-TA asked that the school district contribute $750 toward the program. She noted the Ross Town Council has granted $550, contingent on school district participation.

A new director is to be named for this year, Mrs. Doyle said. The trustees held up action on the fund request until the director is appointed.

The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Margaret L. Poutas, eighth grade teacher, effective Feb. 28. Mrs. Poutas who is expecting the birth of her first child.

The trustees approved purchase of a new stove for the school cafeteria at $459.50.

2 Plead Innocent To Drug Charges

Robert A. Sparrow, 23, of San Quentin Village and Russell L. Kimberly, 22, of 5 Deer Park Lane, San Anselmo, pleaded innocent to a burglary charge in Marin County Superior Court yesterday.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. continued the matter one week for setting of a trial date.

The two men were arrested on Jan. 20 after a doctor's bag containing some 200 pills of narcotics, hypnotic drugs and phenobarbital was stolen from a car at Marin General Hospital. Sparrow and Kimberly were arrested with John Galli, 21-year-old gardener of 151 Alder Avenue, San Anselmo, in front of Kimberly's house with the bag. Charges against Galli were later dropped.

Family Life Series Speaker Slated

Lt. Col. William Hausman, M.D., assistant chief of psychiatry, Letterman General Hospital, will be the second speaker in the current family life discussion series being sponsored by the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael.

Colonel Hausman will answer the question, "How Big Is the Child?" on Thursday at 8:30 p.m. at the Center.

Because the group is limited in size, advanced registration is necessary.

Organ Unit To Meet

The Hammond Organ Society will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Tamalpais Women's Club in Kentfield. Emory Fox will be guest organist.

Terra Linda School Bids Are Requested

Call of bids for construction of the Don Timoteo School in Terra Linda was approved last night by the Dixie School District trustees.

The school on Trellis Drive which will adjoin the Vallecito school, will include an administration unit, library, two kindergartens and eight standard classrooms.

Maximum cost of the project is not to exceed $341,000. According to Supt. Dennis B. Willis, construction of the school will insure housing for the district pupils until September, 1962.

The board instructed the superintendent to prepare applications form for a state loan for construction of a multi-use room at the Mary E. Silveira School. The board noted that the application for the loan would probably not be approved until the district voters had approved additional state loan authorization. A vote on a four-million-dollar loan has been set for April 18.

In other action last night, the board:

1. Appointed Raymond Riley, Santa Margarita School principal, as district summer school director. Other principals were assigned to direct curriculum.
2. Authorized the superintendent to begin plans for another summer workshop for teachers. Summer workshops have been conducted by the district for the past three years.
3. Set April 24 as the formal dedication date for the Vallecito School which was completed last summer.
4. Authorized the superintendent and curriculum consultant to attend a Claremont College teaching conference on Feb. 28 and March 1.
5. Authorized the superintendent to proceed with construction of at rack and field area at Vallecito School at a cost not to exceed $750.
6. Adopted a policy statement whereby a student body organization fund shall be established at the Vallecito School.

Airman Denies Holdup Attempt

A/1c Ruben S. Sanchez of Hamilton Air Force Base pleaded innocent in Marin County Superior Court yesterday to attempted robbery of a San Rafael taxi driver on the Smith Brothers Ranch road on Jan. 22.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. set a jury trial for March 28, 29 and 30.

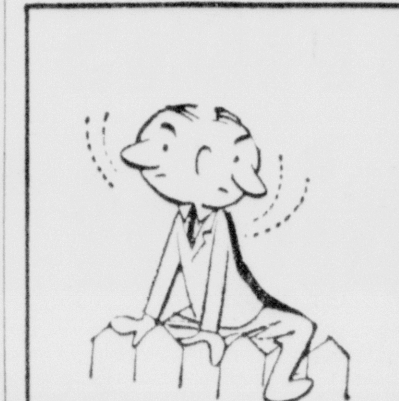

Sanchez is charged with being the masked bandit who pointed a .22 caliber pistol at Willie E. Daughtry of 472 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, and ordered him to turn over his money, then became rattled and ran away empty-handed.

Marin Republican Council Elects

Eight directors have been elected to the board of the Marin Republican Council. The organization's first 1961 membership meeting was held Saturday night.

Directors are William S. Anderson Jr., Walter F. Kieckhefer Jr. and Charles Michael, of Kentfield; W. James Dawson of San Rafael; Clifford K. Badger of Mill Valley; Homer H. Odum of Novato; Donald J. De Voto of Corte Madera, and Michell N. Jr. of Tiburon.

Directors will meet within the next two weeks to elect officers. Philip A. Crane Jr. is current president.

Your Teen-Age Son Requires Careful, Understanding Handling

Do you get mad at your teenage son? Lose your temper and yell at him? You probably do because you're human and he riles you. He claims you treat him like a baby. His judgment is bad, but he doesn't know it. He never gives up. You can't do a good job of raising a teenage boy without having arguments.

Your son is changeable, which adds to the trouble. Today he's like a kindergartener, tomorrow an adult. This morning he seems responsible, this afternoon, irresponsible. This week he is in love but next week he is a woman hater. Here are four suggestions for heading off trouble with teen-age boys.

FREEDOM: Give your son as much freedom as he can handle with reasonable safety. His biggest complaints come from the feeling that you limit his freedom too much. He feels grown-up and he wants to make his own decisions. Let him, whenever possible.

RESPONSIBILITY: Try to have him take on some real responsibilities. A paper route, for example, or any decent job. He needs to accept obligations and live up to them. We fathers learned responsibility early but many of our sons don't. They're the losers.

CONFORMITY: Let your son conform to the standards of his gang. Standards of dress, conduct, dating and so on. He depends on his friends and he is upset if he's required to be different. You'll be safe if you live in a reasonably good neighborhood.

RELIGION: With all of his troubles your boy can be quite idealistic. Have him attend a church with a good youth program. Encourage him to take part. Year after year, all over the country, church gangs are the best gangs of all.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is there a good book or booklet to help parents of teenagers?"

T.C.

(A) There are many. One of the standard booklets is "Guiding the Adolescent," published by the Children's Bureau in Washington, D.C. The cost is only twenty-five cents. Order from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D.C.

'WASTE OF MONEY' County Clerk Spurns Performance Reports

County Clerk George S. Jones has made no monthly performance report to the county administrator since last October, it was disclosed in a routine letter from Administrator Alan Bruce to the board of supervisors yesterday.

The letter was mainly devoted to reports from other departments with brief notation that the clerk's was missing.

"I don't see any benefit to the reports," said Jones when asked the reason. "They take considerable time and I'd need extra help to give them. I think it's just piling up more work and wasting the taxpayer's money. I think the supervisors should go into the departments and see for themselves what goes on."

Supervisor Walter R. Castro asked the administrator's view.

"The report forms are simple and brief," said Bruce. "I'd think the information asked would be readily available. The reports are of value to me in getting an overall view. They are not as a rule a measure of efficiency because much of the work done depends on what comes in."

North Bay Water Report Is Given

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — The immediate fate of the North Bay Aqueduct may be decided in the next two months. But it will be two years before comparative figures are available on eventual supplies and cost of water from the Eel River and other northern sources.

That was the report of the state Department of Water Resources to the Eel River Flood Control and Water Conservation Assn.'s legislative committee meeting in the capitol yesterday.

William L. Berry, chief of the department's Division of Resources Planning, said a revaluation of the North Bay Aqueduct would be ready in two months. He said preliminary studies have been completed and the division is sending men into the field immediately to meet with water users to see if the project can be economically constructed at this time.

He was not encouraging. "I have seen the studies to date and I am personally skeptical that you people will want to sign up for water at what it will cost," Berry declared.

One of his chief aides, Albert J. Dolcini, a principal hydraulic engineer, wasn't any more enthusiastic. Discussing the reasons why the department had not purchased rights of way for the aqueduct project, Dolcini declared: "Our studies indicated perhaps it would not be prudent to take the lands now. It appeared better to hold off until we have an answer two months."

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy lashed out at the department for not having gone ahead with rights of way purchased. One million dollars was made available to the department a year and a half ago, he said, but no property has been purchased. He noted the terminal reservoir site in Novato is now being turned into a cemetery.

He suggested that part of the million dollars be diverted into an areawide study of comparisons of quantity, quality and costs of serving the North Bay area by aqueduct or from the rivers to the north.

McCarthy got little support for this proposal. Napa, Sonoma and Solano County supervisors objected.

Berry said his division is studying all of the rivers of the north coast but that it would take another two years before study of the various alternatives could be completed and a "phase development plan" proposed. He said, however, that a "progress report on the coastal streams would be ready before the legislature adjourns" (in June).

The final plan would show, he indicated, just how the Eel River should be developed and how its waters could be transported to the areas of their need. He estimated "about 1980" as being the earliest he would predict the Eel development.

"We can't wait," declared Napa Supervisor Howard Dickenson.

Jerome B. Gilbert, North Marin Water District manager and Marin's representative on the legislative committee, reported that with Marin Municipal Water District's new Nicasio Dam and his district's new contract for Russian River water, "Marin apparently has an adequate supply for 15 to 20 years." But, he added, "we are looking for our ultimate supply and where it should come from. We need overall planning."

Berry said his division would continue its studies after the 1963 report.

The North Bay Aqueduct would not be large enough for Marin's ultimate needs, he said, but preliminary figures now available indicate Eel River water will cost more than either aqueduct water or locally developed water.

In answer to specific questions he said that piecemeal water development might not be the ideal way, but that it is the only practical way because of the huge capital investments needed for water projects.

The meeting, chaired by Napa supervisors' chairman N. D. Clark, as legislative committee chairman, took on formal action pending the water resources report. Some 45 persons from 10 or more counties participated.

Unemployment Benefit Bill Gains A Step

SACRAMENTO (P) — Emergency benefits to California's unemployment totaling eight million dollars in March was a step closer to passage today.

The Assembly Finance and Insurance Committee voted 15-2 for it yesterday. A similar bill is expected to clear the Senate Finance Committee today.

The measure is backed by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. He says it will help fight the recession.

The extra benefits during March would be paid in checks of up to $55 a week to 45,000 workers who have exhausted their regular 26 weeks of unemployment insurance since Dec. 1.

Employers would be taxed an extra seven million dollars on their 1962 payrolls to help pay for the program.

The Assembly measure is by Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie (D-Antioch). The Senate version is by Sen. Stanford C. Shaw (D-Ontario).

They both provide that unemployment benefits shall be paid for 39 weeks, instead of 26, when statewide unemployment exceeds 6 per cent of the covered work force for three consecutive months. December, January and February qualify.

Quick Divorce Bill Rejected

SACRAMENTO (P) — Legislation approving quickie divorces in California was turned down by the Assembly yesterday.

The bill, which would have reduced the waiting period before a divorce is granted from one year to three months, was sent to the Rules Committee by a unanimous vote. It will then be referred to another committee for further study.

Assemblyman George Willson (D-Huntington Park), the author, said the one-year waiting period does not promote reconciliation.

Instead, he said, it causes adultery and divorces in states with more liberal laws.

Assemblyman Charles Chapel (R-Inglewood) said he thought all churches would oppose the measure. Declaring it would make divorce easier, he called it "a downhill measure."

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

Also enlisting in the Air Force was George Picken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Picken of 20 Park Lane, Fairfax.

Bagley Introduces Court, Hospital Bills

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Half a dozen bills on courts, hospital names, workmen's compensation, occupation designation on ballots, and title companies were introduced in the legislature today by Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley.

Two court bills were aimed at speeding up justice by permitting municipal courts to take over some of the burden of superior courts. On Bagley measure would raise the present maximum jurisdiction of municipal courts in civil cases from $3,000 to $6,000. It would also permit a superior court to transfer litigation before it to a municipal court if it appeared the ultimate award in the case would not exceed $3,000.

A second court bill would prohibit superior courts from awarding court costs in a superior court action when the action could have been filed in a municipal court.

Bagley said both of the proposals are designed to relieve crowded superior court calendars by allowing municipal courts to handle a larger share of the civil litigation.

The desire of the directors of Marin General Hospital to change its name has led to another suggested law. Bagley put in a bill which would allow district hospital directors to change the name of the institution without action by the voters. All they would have to do would be to file a resolution with the Secretary of State.

The assemblyman said the Marin General directors are interested in changing the name of their hospital because it is often confused with a county hospital.

Bagley's other bills:

1. Allows the filing of a petition to reopen an injury case under state workmen's compensation, by either the injured man or the employer, within five years after the accident. However, no award of the Industrial Accident Commission may be changed after five years unless such a petition had previously been filed.

2. Authorizes legislator to make a two word occupation designation on the ballot besides "incumbent." Bagley said that with legislators being only part-time, their other occupation should also be permitted on the ballot.

3. Authorizes title companies to "hold" property for a client under a "holding agreement" without imposing on the company a technical trust obligation. The bill would clarify present law as to whether the title company would be acting as a trust company in such a case or merely holding title as a "convenience" to the client.

Sales Of Compact Cars Rise In Year

DETROIT (P) — Almost 25 per cent of all cars registered in the United States in 1960 were domestic compact models and total registrations were second best in history.

In reporting this yesterday, Automotive News said the compacts jumped from about 605,000 in 1959 to 1,621,719 last year. Imports fell from 614,131 in 1959 to 498,785 in 1960.

Imports and compacts combined accounted for one of every three registrations.

The Trans-Canada Highway, under construction since 1949, is expected to be completed in 1963.

FAIRWEATHER UNDER SAIL—This is the 58-foot yacht Fairweather, sailing with the wind as it will on an around-the-world cruise from Sausalito which its owner, William R. Adams, expects to last 10 years. Six members of the Adams family and two others are to take the cruise.

cluding Mrs. Adams, will be paid $10 a month as wages by Adams. He said "that's plenty."

There are two sets of bongo drums aboard. Adams calls them "Morrean telephones."

Aboard ship is two tons of food.

All hands will stand watches, women to assist during the day only. Everyone will help cook.

"Mrs. Adams was in the skin diving business," said Mrs. Barnett. All the Adamses are skin divers. All are good swimmers.

Adams said he read books three days to learn to sail, then set out from Florida with his family.

"For seven days," he said, "I didn't sleep because I was the only one who had read the books."

"Ten days out we could hear this moaning sound like a herd of porpoises. Actually, it was a hurricane. It blew for 48 hours steady. We rode it out with no casualties. My beard, which I had then, turned white at the end. I was so embarrassed, I shaved it off."

The itinerary for the 10-year voyage.

"Bora Bora, American Samoa, New Caledonia, Sidney, the Philippines, then Japan, India, Madagascar, the Mediterranean. Then back to the British West Indies, around the Horn. And Sausalito in '71," said Adams.

Woman Is Cited For Running Light

Mrs. Dorothy M. Kell, owner of Dorothy Kell Furniture of San Rafael, was injured last night in a traffic accident at Fourth and B Streets in San Rafael.

Mrs. Kell, who lives at 637 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, suffered bruises of the head and right leg and cuts over the eye. She said she would see her own doctor.

Police Officer John Kingston said Mrs. Kell was southbound on B Street, drove through a flashing red light and collided with an eastbound car driven by William E. Morton Jr. of 126 McAllister Avenue, Kentfield.

Mrs. Kell's car was hurled into a United Moving and Storage truck parked on the southeast corner of B Street. She was cited for failure to stop for a flashing red light.

Cadet Color Guard

A color guard of cadets from San Rafael Military Academy participated in the massing of the colors ceremony at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco Sunday in observance of Washington's birthday. Bruce Bostick of San Rafael was one of the participants.

Cedars School Initial Plans Win Approval

The first stage of plans including only a swimming pool and a "scout hut," for eventual development of a school on 20 acres of land bordering Tamalpais Cemetery were approved yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The application by the Cedars Development School, Inc., of Ross calls for long range plans for eventual development of a school. Immediate plans call for only the hut and pool as an additional recreation area for the present school in Ross.

The planners instructed Planning Director Mary Summers to report on March 6 as to the advisability of amending the use permit so detailed plans of the entire development would not be required at this time.

An application by Roger L. Heiser for permission to construct a 12-unit, 3-story apartment house on the north side of Sacramento Avenue on the downslope of Waldo Point in north Sausalito was continued to March 6 pending Heiser's ability to show clear title to the land.

The planners approved a tentative map of Marinero Residence No. 2, a subdivision behind Hilarita housing on Lyford Drive in Tiburon.

An application by R. L. Hendricks for rezoning of a one-half acre lot on Sacramento Avenue in the Sausalito area will be heard on March 6.

An application for architectural supervision for construction of a Lutheran Church at 2470 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard was postponed indefinitely at the request of the applicant.

and plan in the south end of the city.

A request by Dr. Richard H. Albert and four other occupants of the medical-dental building at 600 Mission Avenue to change the Belle Avenue exit to an entrance and eliminate the proposed Mission Avenue on-ramp was heard by the council.

Coleman indicated the plan would bring more traffic into the Dominican area and would eliminate a stretched-out diamond interchange between Mission Avenue and Second Street.

The San Francisco engineer was hired by the city five months ago at $8.50 an hour with total cost for freeway recommendations and a master streets and highways plan not to exceed $15,000.

Last night Norris Rawles, supervisor of public works, asked the city to use special state gasoline tax funds provided for city streets and highways planning and administration to pay for Coleman's study. Rawles said San Rafael has accumulated about $16,000 over the past three years. The council approved.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen told the council it would have to hire a planning consultant by March 23 or lose $16,000 of federal urban planning funds allocated thorough the state.

The funds are to be used for preparing a general plan for the city. Coleman will cover the streets and highways and the planning consultant will draft proposals for park and recreation and zoning.

Mayor McInnis asked Coleman to recommend three planners and City Planner Donald Newmark to do the same. The names will be considered at an adjourned meeting 5:15 p.m. Monday.

Russ, U.S. Farming Will Be Compared

Leon Tichinin, farm adviser for Santa Clara County, will compare Russian and American agriculture and tell of a recent trip to Russia when he speaks tomorrow at the annual meeting of the Marin County Farm Bureau.

Farm bureau members will meet at the West Marin School in Point Reyes Station at 10 a.m. for a business session and election of officers. A luncheon at the school will be followed by Tichinin's speech.

Openings Still Remain For Holiday Program

Openings still remain for the children's holiday program at the Marin Jewish Community Center tomorrow.

The theme for the day's activities is "Americans All." The program, which begins at 10 a.m. and ends at 3 p.m., will include a movie on brotherhood, as well as skits, songs and stories about the various nationality groups that are represented in America. Children from 5½ to 12 years are eligible.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY in the Heart of our County

Marin pioneers chose a site in the heart of our county as a final resting place for their families. Today this location—at the west end of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael—is still convenient to all Marin points.

Marinites who choose Mount Tamalpais do so with the assurance that its beauty will grow with the years. The interest from a quarter-million dollar endowment fund—twice the legal requirement—is dedicated to the constant care and improvement of this 57-acre site.

Perhaps—like many Marin families—you wish to make your own final arrangements to spare others difficult decisions. If so, we invite your inquiry or a personal visit.

Burma Troops Open Fire On Anti-U.S. Mob

RANGOON, Burma (P)—Burma troops opened fire on a mob of several thousand demonstrators outside the U. S. Embassy in Rangoon today, seriously wounding five persons.

It was the biggest anti-American demonstration ever seen in Burma. The demonstrators were protesting the supplying of arms with U. S. markings to Chinese Nationalist guerrillas on the border with Red China.

The U. S. Embassy has begun an investigation of how the arms reached the guerrillas.

Troops were called out after police and firemen were unable to check the demonstrators in a melee that had left three policemen and 35 demonstrators injured.

Driverless Car Rams House

A driverless 1960 convertible rolled over a 30-foot cliff in the Loch Lomond district of San Rafael last night and careened 140 feet through shrubs, a redwood fence and into a house at 40 Dumfries Terrace.

The automobile tore a hole in the main wall of the house owned by William T. Jones and buckled the walls of a small bedroom in the basement.

Owner of the car, Dr. Mervin B. Shenson, said he parked it in the carport of his house at 33 Dumfries Terrace. About 11 p.m., the brake apparently slipped and the car rolled off the carport and downhill.

SPACE

Carpenter, Walker Schirra, Donald Slayton and Gordon Cooper. All seven were on hand for today's trial.

The first manned flight, scheduled in perhaps two or three months, is planned to send an astronaut a few hundred miles down the Atlantic range propelled by a Redstone rocket, a less powerful booster than the one employed today.

Except for equipment the vehicle will duplicate the one tried out today.

Propelled by a huge Atlas missile, the spacecraft roared up from this missile test center at 9:10 a.m. today. Traveling at speeds up to 12,850 miles an hour, it soared 107 miles high and came down 400 miles northeast of Puerto Rico and 1,425 miles from the launching pad.

Quickly sighted by crewmen of a waiting plane, the one-ton bell-shaped space capsule was picked up by a helicopter at 9:53 a.m. and by 10:09 was aboard the landing ship dock Donner.

It was right on target, coming down within 13 miles of the nearest of the fleet of waiting ships.

The aim of the trial was to see what would happen under the most severe conditions a returning space craft might encounter.

Motor Bike Stolen

A motor bike and a spare tire and rim, valued at $200, were taken Friday evening from the garage of Bill L. Marcus, 322 Beach Road, Belvedere, police reported.

OBITUARIES

Sausalito Boat Captain Succumbs

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in Birmingham, Ala., for Thomas W. Rylant, 51, Sausalito commercial fishing boat captain who died Saturday of a heart attack.

One of Sausalito's best known fishermen, Rylant had lived in Sausalito for 11 years at 115 Second Street.

He was born in Birmingham and received his education there but later worked in various parts of the world. For some years he helped in laying oil pipe lines in Saudi Arabia.

Later he moved to San Francisco where he worked for four or five years with the military sea transport service before settling in Sausalito, where for a time he owned his own boat.

Rylant suffered a heart attack while on his way in from fishing Saturday and was pronounced dead at the Sausalito Yacht Harbor.

During the past year he had worked intermittently as a taxi driver in Sausalito, between times of fishing.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Burr of 645 Rosal Way, San Rafael, as well as his mother Mrs. Ernest M. Brittain of Birmingham. Local arrangements were by Keaton's Mortuary.

MAYNARD BOULDEN

A Requiem Mass for Maynard F. Boulden, 44, who died in his home at 17 Hart Street, San Rafael, Sunday night, will be celebrated Thursday at 9 a.m. at Elizabeth's Church, Oakland.

An autopsy performed yesterday revealed he had died of a heart attack. He was an examiner with the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; a son, James Boulden; a daughter, Carol Lee Boulden; his parents, Mrs. A. F. Hoppe and Fred Boulden and a sister, Mrs. Mildred Fay.

The Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Colonial Chapel, Oakland. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

ELLEN APPLEBAUM

Mrs. Ellen Applebaum of San Rafael, who lived all her life in California, died in a San Francisco hospital yesterday after a long illness. She was 50. Mrs. Applebaum, who resided at 4 Point San Pedro Road, was a member of the Catholic Social Service of St. Raphael's Parish.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph J. Applebaum; three daughters, Mrs. Carl Irwin Jr., Lynn and Susan Applebaum; and a sister, Mrs. Frank Sims.

A Requiem High Mass will be celebrated Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church. The cortege will form at 9:15 a.m. at Keaton's Chapel, San Rafael.

Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery. The Rosary will be recited Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Keaton's chapel.

F. BROSTROM

Frederick Brostrom, 90, of 809 Lamont Avenue, Novato, died today in a local hospital after long illness.

Brostrom was born in Sweden, and came to the United States when he was 17. He lived in New York, moved to Burlingame where he lived for 25 years, and had lived in Novato for eight years.

He was a foreman in the machine shops of the Market Street streetcar line until his retirement at 76. He was a member of the Masons.

Brostrom is survived by his wife of 63 years, Mrs. Anna Louis Brostrom; a son, Oscar, in San Francisco, and a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Andrews of Novato.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Halsted and Co., San Francisco.

FRANK BETTEGA

Funeral services for Frank Bettega, 89, who died at a Corte Madera rest home Saturday, were held today at Keaton's Mortuary. Burial was in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Bettega, a laborer, was born in Italy and had been in Marin County for about 50 years. He had suffered a long illness at the rest home. There were no known surviving relatives.

HOW TO MAKE A BOY GROW FASTER!

You can see a boy's physical growth. His arms grow out of his sleeves and his feet out of his trouser legs. But it is a bit more difficult to observe what goes on inside his mind. The home, the church, and the school naturally contribute much to his mental development. But there is more that can be done—by providing a constructive activity for his spare time.

Thousands of boys benefit greatly from newspaperboy training. In building up a business of their own, these lads develop personality traits and establish mental attitudes which do much to insure success in later life. They learn many things which cannot be obtained from books.

Perhaps YOUR BOY will grow faster with a newspaper business of his own. Encourage him today to investigate this worthwhile opportunity.

Demolition Of Gas Plant To Start Soon

Demolition of the old gas plant in the block bounded by Second, Third, Brooks and Lindero Streets in San Rafael is scheduled to begin in "about a week," it was announced today by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. officials.

New division and district offices are to be built on the Third and Brooks Streets corner of the site.

Low bidder for the demolition job was the National Iron and Metal Co. of Oakland. There were nine bids submitted. The amounts of the bids were not announced.

First structures to be removed will be the gas "holders" or tanks, already disconnected from the PG&E system and empty, and the other outdoor equipment used when gas was manufactured at the plant. Next will follow razing of the gas plant itself.

PG&E officials said they expect to call for bids on the new offices about May 1 and begin construction of the contemporary two-story structure by mid-summer.

Administrative And Professional Zoning Approved For San Rafael

The San Rafael City Council last night added an administrative-professional zone to the city's zoning ordinance.

All four councilmen present voted for the new zone after a five-minute public hearing. It would be limited chiefly to office, studios and laboratories.

Councilman Fred Jensen was absent.

City Planner Donald Newmark said the Marin Professional Center will probably be one of the first areas considered for administrative zoning.

The zone limits buildings to 36 feet high, requires a minimum building site of 7,500 square feet, has minimum front and back yard setbacks of 20 feet and a sideyard setback of at least six feet for one-story building and four additional feet for every story above that. Offstreet parking in front of the building is prohibited.

Six bids were opened last night on replacing a 20-year-old road roller in the department of public works. Spears-Wells Machinery Co. of Oakland submitted the low bid of $4,654. Estimate was $6,000 and the top bid was $6,356. Award of contract was postponed to March 6.

Councilmen accepted a $193,000 surety bond from Latipac-Perini Co. assuring the completion of a $110,000 sewage treatment plant, a $40,000 pump station and $43,000 worth of force mains in Marin Bay. Bids on the project will be opened at 5:15 p.m. next Monday at an adjourned meeting of the council.

The caretaker's house in Gerstle Park will be torn down, the council decided. It authorized $3,000 for demolition of the old building which has been vacant for six months.

Supplemental service for the city's municipal code, which has cost the city $8,000, was contracted last night with Book Publishing Co. of Seattle.

For $420 per year the company will supply 100 copies of 30 supplemental pages adding new ordinances to the code which was delivered last fall.

City Atty. Albert E. Bagshaw was authorized to work out with San Anselmo City Atty. John G. Buresh a plan of action in the 10-year legal battle over ownership of the Miracle Mile.

Attorney S. J. Hugh Allen, representing the heirs of Highland Realty Co., which lays claim to an old railroad right of way along the street, indicated in a letter that a settlement might be made for $12,000. Highland originally had asked more than $100,000.

"I think we are in an enviable position and could probably negotiate for less," said Bagshaw.

The council adopted a pay scale for the position of police dispatcher, created at the preceding council meeting. Although the police department recommended a range of $401 to $480, the council adopted the Vallejo Police Department scale of five steps from $367 to $447.

At request of R. F. Wood, manager of the Associated Plumbing Contractors of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino Counties, the council postponed action on Planning Commissioner Orlando Conti's request for a plumbing inspector until its next meeting.

3 Pass Exams For San Rafael Police Position

Three men have passed the written and oral examinations for San Rafael policeman.

They are Douglas Burnham, 23, of 62 Granada Drive, Corte Madera; Phillip Green, 21, of Colma, and Arthur Schartel, 22, of Berkeley. Twenty-two applicants took the preliminary examination. Those who passed it were interviewed Saturday by Inspector Victor Viera of Berkeley, Police Chief Romeo LaVezzo of Benicia and Asst. Chief Sam N. Serio of San Anselmo.

One of the three men will be selected to replace Officer Larry Price who resigned on Jan. 7 after three and one-half years on the San Rafael police force to join the San Francisco Police Department. The job pays $477 per month to start. The three will take physical examination next week.

The 780-mile Santa Fe Trail was made obsolete on Feb. 9, 1880, when iron rails reached the old Spanish town of Santa Fe.

San Geronimo Valley Zoning Is Approved

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday approved zoning about 6,900 acres of undeveloped land in the San Geronimo Valley as a planned community district.

No one at the public hearing objected to the classification. The zoning would not affect the presently subdivided residential areas, including the communities of Woodacre, San Geronimo, Forest Knolls and Lagunitas.

Mrs. Mary Summers, planning director, said the planned community designation was the forerunner for putting the master plan into effect in the San Geronimo Valley.

A planned community district, Mrs. Summers explained, is one in which large undeveloped acreage is required to be planned in a general way for ultimate development before any subdivision of construction is carried out.

The plan for ultimate development would indicate all future streets; residential, commercial or industrial areas, necessary school sites, etc., she said.

The commission also approved plans for construction of two four-unit apartment dwellings, both partly within the city of Mill Valley and partly within the county, on Miller Avenue near Gomez Way. The county has architectural supervision.

An application for a use permit from Harold MacKenzie for a 16-unit medical building on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard near Toussin Street in Kentfield was granted. The property is near Ross General Hospital.

The commission recommended to the board of supervisors approval of a proposed extension of San Rafael's Woodland Avenue east to an underpass under the Redwood Highway at the San Quentin Wye.

The county counsel is preparing the documents necessary for condemnation of property to provide for the extension. The planning commission on bylaw must report on such a proposal.

An extension of Auburn Street northerly crossing the Northwestern Pacific Railroad had been planned by the Division of Highways, but this was not approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Woodland Avenue was proposed as an alternate route for traffic. It takes advantage of an existing overcrossing of freeway traffic and ties the south San Rafael traffic into the traffic patterns at the San Quentin Wye, it was reported.

The commission also approved an amendment to the zoning ordinance to rezone a lot at North San Pedro and Merrydale Roads from two-family residence to multiple residence.

A revised map of Muir Meadows subdivision unit 1, at the junction of Shoreline and Panoramic Highways, was approved, subject to certain conditions. The number of proposed lots is increased from 53 to 75.

Our bank manager is used to helping!

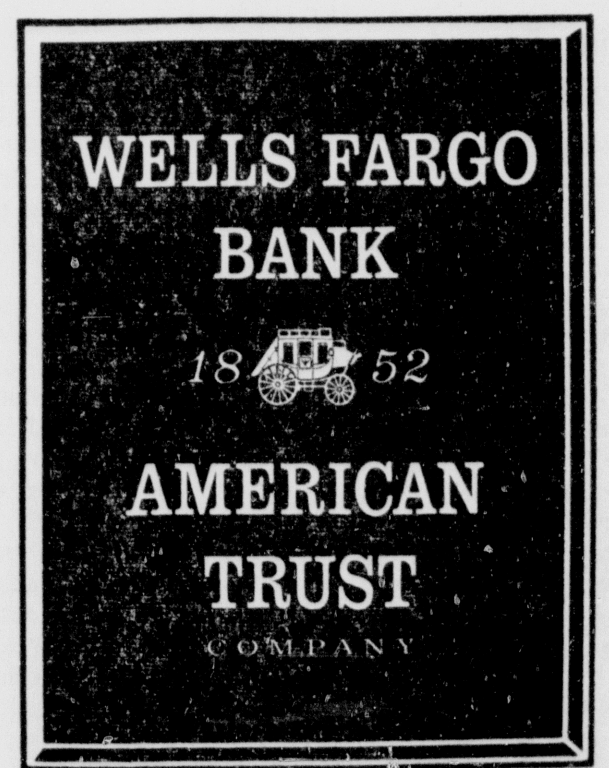

"Whether it's here at the high school or working on one of the local committees, we know we can count on our Wells Fargo American Trust manager. He seems to know everyone, really believes in the community, and he's always glad to be of service. My husband says that makes him a better bank manager, too.

"It must rub off because the people who work at our branch bank are friendly and interested in us. That's the reason why we have our checking and savings accounts there—our safe deposit box, too. We always think of Wells Fargo American Trust as our family bank."

Bus Benches May Provide City Income

Those concrete bus stop benches scattered throughout San Rafael can mean revenue to the city.

A surprised San Rafael City Council learned last night that the city has a 10-year-old contract with the owner of the benches which means up to $19 a month revenue.

The owner, Paul A. Streett of 190 Oak Drive, San Rafael, told the councilmen he wants to transfer the 19 benches to the Western Advertising System, Inc., of Oakland. Streett owns the Streett Seat Advertising Co.

"I never heard of this," declared Mayor John F. McInnis. "It has not been discussed since I have been on the council."

City Clerk W. L. Morgan produced an agreement dated May 1, 1950 in which Streett agreed to pay the city $1 per month for every bench that carries advertising. If there is no advertising he pays nothing.

City Manager Dan E. Andersen said Western Advertising System wanted a five-year contract to pay 50 cents per bench per month whether it had advertising or not. But city attorney declared that the agreement submitted did not specify those terms. Western Advertising was directed to submit a new proposal at the next city council meeting.

City Approves Of Tree Plan

A tree-planting program for downtown streets was approved by the San Rafael City Council last night.

Eugene F. O'Connor, chairman of the San Rafael Beautiful Committee, proposed the program under which the merchants would give the city money to buy trees and the city would maintain them.

Trees and shrubs would be placed in concrete containers along business streets. The city already has $100 from J.C. Penney Co. and $350 from Macy's to buy nine planters at $50 each to be installed along Fourth and Court Streets.

O'Connor said the $50 will cover the cost of the tree, soil and labor of installing them. He predicted 150 trees along downtown streets in a very short time.

State Taxpayers Urged To Use Short Form

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Controller Alan Cranston has urged several hundred thousand California taxpayers to start using work-saving green short form for their 1960 state tax returns.

Cranston said about one-third of those who have already mailed in the longer form could have used the simpler short green cards—Form 540A. They are for taxpayers whose income is less than $15,000.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

There's No Room For Sentiment On A Professional Sports Team

Mebbe you like it, mebbe you don't. But the clean-up job on the San Francisco 49ers is one of the healthiest signs I have seen on the local sports scene in some time.

Sentiment is a nice thing to have for the wife and kiddies, but it has no place on a professional team. Consideration, yes. Sentiment, no.

The departure of Hurryin' Hugh McElhenny, Joltin' Joe Perry, et al for parts East can't help but bring sentimental memories of monumental deeds performed by these gladiators.

But don't be forgetting that all the heroics performed by ALL the 49ers put together have never brought a championship to the city by the Golden Gate. Always the bridesmaid but never the bride. With the fans left at the church.

No one will give you an argument if you claim that McElhenny is one of the greatest natural backs ever to don the moleskins. Clancy Leisure of KNBC paid Mac one of the nicest compliments yet when he said "I get a thrill just seeing McElhenny WALK across the football field."

In his prime, "the King" was aptly nicknamed. But the King is dead now, as far as 49er fans

Kirk Barrow Knocks Out Floyd Joyner

San Francisco (P)—Heavyweight Kirk Barrow knocked out Floyd Joyner with a right to the head after two minutes and eight seconds of the second round in a bout at Kezar Pavilion Monday night.

Barrow, of Spokane, Wash., weighed 185. Joyner, of Phoenix, Ariz., scaled 203.

The fight had been scheduled for 10 rounds.

Other bouts last night: New York—Jackie Donnelly, 135½, Buffalo, N.Y., outpointed Chico Velez, 135, New York, 10. Caracas, Venezuela—Kenny Lane, 134½, Muskegon, Mich., and Carlos Hernandez, 131½, Venezuela, draw, 10. Chicago—Rudy Ellis, 162, Covert, Mich., stopped Roscoe Shamblin, 159, Youngstown, Ohio, 6.

Close Wins Scored In C League Games

Golden State and Klein TV won a couple of close contests in San Rafael Recreation Department C League basketball last night.

Led by the Larrieu brothers with 23 and 20 points respectively, Golden State edged out Probation Department 53-50 despite 27 points by the losers' Les Peters. Klein downed Ghilotti Brothers 39-36 with Jerry Delany hitting for 14 points. Jerry Crowe had 15 for the losers.

Raiders had no trouble lacing Dumont 60-29 in a third game.

are concerned. Or deposed. And the saddest thing is that Mac will end his career as a "meatball," ground up by the other 13 teams in the NFL.

With the new Minnesota Vikings, Hugh will find a lot less protection up front than even the 49ers could give him. And for a man over the hill this can be brutal. Always somewhat prone to injury, it will be a wonder if Mac lasts out the year in his new assignment.

For Joe Perry, things look a little brighter, but not much. With the Baltimore Colts next year, Joe stands a chance of going with a contender, a team that could come back from their horrendous slip of last year and take it all again. Which would mean a slice of glory and a slice of payola for his efforts.

But here again old Father Time has his fingers in the sugar bowl. Joe's greatest asset was always his jet take-off and his ability to get the extra yards through speed and surprise. The years have taken away that extra half step that means greatness and Joe is now just another fullback. Experience is now his greatest asset.

It is hard to conceive that Perry can help the Colts when he couldn't help the 49ers. All the clippings in his scrap book won't earn him a job with the Colts. He will have to prove himself just like a rookie and win the job on merit.

Coach Weeb Ewbank of Baltimore is nobody's fool and he must see some value in Perry or he would never have given away a draft choice for him. Chances are, however, that the move was one for insurance in case the injured Ameche can't come back or if Pricer or one of the new draftees can't fill the bill.

If Joe doesn't make the grade with the Colts he may find himself a teammate of McElhenny's again with the Vikings. Or with the second year Texans. Or on President's Kennedy's growing list of the unemployed.

Perry and Mac and others are gone, just as other old favorites have faded out of the picture. Other 49er standbys like Y. A. Tittle and Ed Henke may be wearing other colors before the 1961 season starts. Next year four or five more old folks will feel the axe.

Now it's all up to Coach Red Hickey. If the 49ers make a good show of it this year the departing warriors will be just a memory. If the 49ers fall on their faces there will be great tongue clucking and head shaking about selling away the team.

I'm glad it's not my problem. But right now, Hickey has my vote of confidence. I only think he is a year or two late in making his move.

Big League Clubs Open Spring Training

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A new twist was added to an old story today as major league baseball clubs began the training chores for a season that will extend to next October. Pitcher Luis Arroyo was delayed in reporting to the New York Yankees camp because of a quarantine for bubonic plague.

That sounds like something John McGraw might have thought up for a wild, left-handed rookie pitcher. But in this case it happened and it merely emphasized the fact that 1961 likely will be a year of novelties and unforeseen happenings in major league baseball.

Arroyo had been pitching for the San Juan team in the Caribbean series in Caracas, Venezuela. When he returned to Puerto Rico to pack for the trip to the Yanks' camp in St. Petersburg, Fla., he ran into a 10-day quarantine imposed by Puerto Rican authorities because of a bubonic plague outbreak in Caracas. If that wasn't enough, an airline strike would have made travel to Florida impossible.

Some other new factors to be reckoned with in 1961 are the expansion of the American League to 10 teams with the addition of two new clubs and the shift of another; a handful of new managers and the great Chicago Cubs' experiment of operating with eight coaches sharing the managerial duties.

a new club owner at Kansas City and too many changes of personnel to count easily. It may be hard to recognize some of the teams.

Five clubs had early arrivals working out last week with a few veterans mingling with the rookies who were undergoing inspection. The Yankees camp formally opened Sunday for the arrival of batterymen. The entire Los Angeles Dodgers' squad was due at the Vero Beach, Fla., camp yesterday, and the Athletics' pitchers and catchers were due at West Palm Beach, Fla.

The new Minnesota Twins shifted from Washington and the Baltimore Orioles had their camp openings scheduled today. By the end of this week every club will have at least some men in camp except the Chicago White Sox, who report Sunday, and the Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Cards, who set Feb. 28 as the reporting date.

Exhibition games are scheduled to start March 11.

The training camp sites: American League — Baltimore, Miami; Boston, Scottsdale, Ariz.; Chicago, Sarasota, Fla.; Cleveland, Tucson, Ariz.; Detroit, Lakeland, Fla.; Kansas City, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Los Angeles, Palm Springs, Calif.; Minneapolis-St. Paul, Orlando, Fla.; New York, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Washington, Pompano Beach, Fla. National League — Chicago, Mesa, Ariz.; Cincinnati, Tampa, Fla.; Milwaukee, Bradenton, Fla.; Los Angeles, Vero Beach, Fla.; Pittsburgh, Fort Myers, Fla.; St. Louis, St. Petersburg, Fla.; San Francisco, Phoenix, Ariz.; Philadelphia, Clearwater, Fla.

Of special interest will be the efforts of the managers of the new clubs—Bill Rigney of the Los Angeles Angels and Mickey Vernon of the Washington Senators — to mould respectable squads from the second-line players made available by the other American League teams and whatever other talent they have been able to pick up.

Other new managers are Ralph Houk as successor to the inimitable Casey Stengel with the Yankees, Joe Gordon at Kansas City, Bob Scheffing at Detroit, and Al Dark at San Francisco.

The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates are about the only club that took a stand pat attitude toward off-season trading. They picked up pitcher Bobby Shantz and have a good rookie crop up for inspection. Elsewhere there'll be plenty of new faces.

And among the old familiar faces occupying new places on the training camp scene are Ted Williams and Joe DiMaggio as special batting coaches for the Red Sox and Yankees, respectively, and Leo Durocher, back in uniform for the first time in several years as a Dodger coach.

Hoosiers Cool Off Lucas, Still Lose

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Coach Fred Taylor has been saying it right along. Opponents have had more than a strong suspicion and now the general public is beginning to realize it. Jerry Lucas, fine a player as he is, isn't the entire Ohio State basketball team.

That seldom has been more evident than it has been in the last two games, when the No. 1 ranked Buckeyes survived a couple of cliff hangers to keep their record untarnished and virtually sew up their second straight Big Ten title.

A revenge-minded Indiana team managed to hold Lucas to 16 points—about 10 below his season average—last night as Hoosier fans chanted "We want blood." But Mel Nowell, one of the "other guys" that Taylor has repeatedly praised for consistent play, came through and Ohio State won anyway, 73-69.

Last Saturday it was Larry Siegfried who contributed the all-important points in a narrow victory over an Iowa team that lost most of its leading players by ineligibility but still manages to hang in there.

Iowa, due largely to the efforts of Don Nelson, the one surviving first stringer, turned back Michigan 50-46 last night and retained that almost invisible chance of overtaking the Buckeyes.

Elsewhere Duke's Blue Devils, who dropped to sixth in this week's Associated Press poll rankings (Iowa is fifth) moved into a tie with Wake Forest for second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference; Mississippi State stayed on top of the Southeastern and Florida continued its strong bid to represent the SEC in the NCAA tournament with fairly impressive victories.

Marin Matmen Are Outclassed

Competition in the Northern California Sectional Wrestling Tournament is still too fast for Marin's high school grapplers, Novato High coach Ralph Cutler admits.

However, in last weekend's maffest, hosted by Alcalones High School with 83 schools from the Alameda County, Diablo, Hayward, Peninsula and Marin leagues competing, Marin did score a significant victory.

Novato's George Van Dyke became the first Hornet in five years to win a match in this tournament, scoring a decision in his first round competition. Jim Corriea, another Novatoan, forced his man into an overtime before losing. Pleasant Hill and Hayward were the two top teams in the meet.

Ohio Staters Retain Lead In Hoop Poll

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Ohio State basketball team had its biggest scare of the season last Saturday night.

Playing Iowa in Iowa City, the undefeated Buckeyes fell 10 points behind at halftime and still trailed by seven points with minutes remaining.

Then the Buckeyes slammed in ten straight points—the last two goals on steals—and squeezed out a 62-61 victory.

This great comeback for victory No. 20 gave Ohio State the No. 1 position in the Associated Press basketball poll for the 11th straight week.

St. Bonaventure, with a 20-1 season mark, also was a unanimous choice of the special panel of sports writers and broadcasters for the runnerup spot, getting 36 votes.

Bears Map Strategy For Effort To Stop Uclans Friday Evening

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—California's Bears plan slow-down strategy for UCLA when the two clubs meet Friday night at Berkeley.

Coach Rene Herrerias of California explains, "I think UCLA has the best personnel in the league. They can shoot so well, we'll have to slow the game up and create the tempo. We can't run with them and we can't shoot with them."

UCLA, still with a solid chance of overhauling Southern California in the Big Five race, must beat California and Stanford on successive nights to stay in the race.

The Bruins already hold one victory over California, a 54-46 triumph at Los Angeles, the lowest winning score for UCLA this season.

Coach Howie Dallmar of Stanford didn't entirely agree with Herrerias on UCLA having the best personnel in the Big Five. Dallmar leaned toward the Trojans of USC, who lead with a 6-3 record compared with 3-3 for the Bruins and 6-4 for Washington.

"That first five for USC with John Rudometkin is tough," declared Dallmar, who also said the No. 1 replacement, Gordon Martin, is a fine ball player. "But UCLA has a little more depth."

California, defending Big Five Champion, finally hit the victory column last weekend with two triumphs over traditional foe, Stanford.

Cal's Stan Morrison and Tom Meschery of St. Mary's were honored at Monday's meeting of the Northern California Basketball Writers and Sportscasters Association as its Players of the Week.

Plane Strike Strands Some Giants

Phoenix, Ariz. (P)—Like most everyone else trying to fly these days, the San Francisco Giants are having problems because of the airlines strike.

Players trying to get here for the start of spring training were stranded in many parts of the country.

Manager Alvin Dark said he hoped to get here from Lake Charles, La., by 9:15 a.m. Wednesday. The club's first workout is scheduled for 10 a.m. that day.

Frank Bergonzi, the Giants' assistant traveling secretary, said:

"It looks like we might have to conduct spring training by mail."

Salmon Season Off To Good Start; Tips Offered For Novice Anglers

The question of whether the opening of the salmon trolling season would be good, bad or indifferent has been answered. It was! Good for some, bad for others and to many, indifferent.

Everything considered, however, the first day of the season was as good, perhaps better, than most years. For example, I checked with Hal Boenner of the Lee Anderson Bait Shop in Oakland on what the skippers working from his place did. Not bad, as you can see:

STEVENS

Skipper Sal Amato of the Pegren, reported five salmon to 15 pounds in the forenoon and three bass on the way back to the harbor; Oscar Rhoades of the Sea Bee checked in with 11 salmon to 12 pounds; Frank Matthews of the Sea Horse netted 12 to 11 pounds; Jimmy Vitero and his Lucky Day boat had 10 salmon to 18 pounds; George Grimshaw and his G. G. unloaded six salmon to 10 pounds; Elwood Meadows and his Privateer displayed 14 nice salmon to 16 pounds.

All those fish were taken off Duxbury Reef. Al Bravo and his Sea Gal boat gave the Slide Ranch area a trial and found eight salmon to 13 pounds.

PERHAPS THE average catch per rod was not too large, but the overall picture definitely is bright. I listened to my Halicrafter on several occasions Saturday and learned that some fair catches were made off Rocky Point also, but didn't get details.

Perhaps a tip or two on salmon trolling outside the Gate might be in order for the angler who is on a private boat and lacks the advice of the very experienced skippers of the party-boat fleet. First in importance is probably the signs to be read. Where you see the birds, gulls and pelicans, diving after surface bait, and where the color of the water is brown, there will be a huge school of small fish usually driven to the surface by the salmon underneath. The experienced skipper will hurry to an area where he sights the birds working or slow down to trolling speed when he locates a section of brown water.

SALMON HAVE a habit of traveling at certain levels. A wise skipper will instruct his people to stagger their lines. By staggering we mean fishing at various depths—length of line from lure. Assuming sinker weights are the same, if one angler has only 20 yards of line out, and the next fellow lets out 40 yards etc. the levels at which the lures will trail will be staggered.

A salmon has a soft mouth. Too great a tension on the Star drag will often result in the hook tearing through the fish's jaw. Too heavy a rod, with enough resilience to take up the shock of a salmon's sudden lunge, can also tear the hook through the soft jaws.

BUT, BY the same token, too light an outfit can hamper the pleasure of others on the boat. To fish for salmon with really light tackle is delightful, but it is impossible to control a hooked large fish, he will dart from side to side and tangle lines of other anglers. So, unless you are with a private, small party where all the others will willingly reel in their outfits and allow you your own sweet time to handle a big salmon to the point where he is too worn out to prevent the net from engulfing him, don't use that extra light tackle.

I CAN'T HELP mentioning at this point that the acme of high tension sport fishing for salmon is had when you are fishing with a buddy in a row-boat and using very light tackle; when you can shut off the outboard motor and play each fish you hook to a triumphant finish and the prize comes in belly up, and you have recourse to neither net nor gaff.

Only trouble, though, is that your fishing areas are restricted to fairly near the shore. I have seen skiffs out by the Light Ship and even near the Farallones, but I have always felt those guys were ripe applicants for the booby hatch. Plenty of places you can troll close to shore where it is only a matter of minutes of drive back to safety in case of a sudden storm.

HALLINAN LAD FOLLOWS DAD'S FOOTSTEPS

Attorney Vincent Hallinan of Ross traveled over to Berkeley last Saturday to see his fourth son Matthew, better known as "Dynamite," star in his first junior varsity rugby game at the University of California.

"By coincidence," said the senior Hallinan, "it was just 50 years to a day from the first day that I myself played."

He termed Dynamite "a great athlete" who starred in his first rugby appearance and is intramural middle-weight boxing champion, captain of the league-leading Ross Raiders of the San Rafael Recreation Basketball League, and is a straight A student in his pre-legal scholastic work.

In the Saturday game Dynamite contributed to defeat of the University Club team, made up of former football stars, by 13-12. Two weeks ago this team barely lost 6-8 to the unbeaten Varsity.

Spartans Bag Grid Talent

SAN JOSE (P)—Two football players from schools that recently dropped the sport and 10 junior college transfers have enrolled for the spring semester at San Jose State College.

Bob Kane, a 180-pound quarterback from San Mateo who played frosh football at Marquette last fall enrolled along with Tom Doslak, a 205-pound halfback from Chicago who played as a sophomore last year at Denver.

The junior college transfers are:

Tom Myers, guard from San Jose City College; Dick Beazell, center, and Dick Garbisch, quarterback, Santa Monica City College; Dick Jones, guard, Riverside City College; Charles Elder, end, Hartnell College; Ken Buron, fullback, San Jose C.C.; Tom Piggee, halfback, City College of San Francisco; Dick Barry, halfback, Modesto Junior College; Cecil Lincoln, guard, Stockton College; and Mike Walsh, tackle, Monterey Peninsula College.

Cal In Rugby Wins

LOS ANGELES (P)—Two victories here extended California's string of rugby victories to 34 straight.

The Golden Bears beat Southern California 9-3 yesterday. The Bears also beat UCLA 9-5 on their trip here.

RED HEADS—All-American Red Heads, pictured with Coach Benny Overman, will play an exhibition basketball game at Drake High School tonight. Story below.

ALL-AMERICAN REDHEADS Famed Girls Basketball Team In Marin Tonight

The world's most traveled and most talked about girls basketball team stops off in Marin County tonight for a one-night performance in the Drake High School gymnasium.

The All-American Red Heads, coached by Benny Overman, will display their zany antics and skill in an exhibition contest starting at 8:15. Their opponents—or rather the victims of this amusing brand of basketball—will be the Drake High Faculty All-Stars.

The Drake lineup will include Cappy Lavin, Veryl Sorgen, Gordon Chan, Bob Maher, Vince Boyle, Bob Johnson and possibly Superintendent Chester Carlisle, former All-American at University of California.

The exhibition is sponsored by the Drake Benchwarmers Club for its activities fund. Admission is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students.

In addition to the antics during the game, the Red Heads will stage a halftime show featuring fancy passing, dribbling, foul shooting, trick shooting, ball balancing and juggling.

Some of the queen-sized Red Heads are 6-foot-2-inch Joyce Webster, 6-1 Tex Glover and 6-0 Ella Cross.

The girls team has headquarters in Caraway, Ark. and for the past 20 years has traveled throughout the world, winning more than 100 games a year against male opposition.

Ann Curtis Team Takes 6 Trophies In PAAU Swimming

The Anntiques, the synchronized swimming team representing the Ann Curtis Swim Club of San Rafael, came home with six silver trophies as a result of their swimming efforts at the Pacific Association A.A.U. Synchronized Swimming Meet held Sunday at San Jose State College.

The team composed of Sue Costa, Kathy Poganski, Sue Steinmetz and Peggy Scott won second place in the team event, then Sue Costa and Kathy Poganski combined their talents to place second in the Duet division.

Within the space of one month in 1960, jockey Evan Anyon won four Chicago stakes races with four different horses.

Magic Track Figures Hitting New Heights

NEW YORK (P)—Up, up, up climb the "magic figures" in track and field.

You don't need a long memory to recall when the four-minute mile was just a remote possibility and the 16-foot pole vault was spoken of in whispers.

Now with the indoor season less than half over, a whole fistfull of records are in jeopardy.

Start with the mile.

It has never been run in four minutes indoors because of the numerous turns on banked tracks. Ron Delaney's 4:01.4 is the record. But Istvan Rozsavolgyi, the skinny Hungarian army captain, has his sights set on the first indoor four-minute job.

He is confident he can do it. His best to date in five races this season is 4:04, but he hit 4:01.8 in chasing Delaney to the Irishman's record two years ago.

The pole vault? Don Bragg's 15-9½ still stands as the indoor record. Bragg always has had his heart set on becoming the first man to get over 16 feet.

Discouraged because of assorted ills early this season, he wanted to quit. Then, two weeks ago in Philadelphia, he barely missed at 16 feet. Last week in the New York Athletic Club games, he again just did hit the crossbar after getting his body safely over. Now he is sure that he'll get over 16 feet before the end of the season.

How high can they go in the high jump?

Probably only Valery Brumel, the 18-year-old Soviet whiz kid, can answer that. He made 7-3 in his debut on boards here last week, but jumped 7-4½ in Leningrad less than a month ago.

Brumel came within a hair of clearing 7-5 last week. He is a confident fellow, and thinks around 7-6½ is about as high as any human can climb.

Then there is the 60-yard high hurdles.

Hayes Jones is co-holder of the record of 7 seconds with Milt Campbell. The latter has retired, so the Ypsilanti, Mich.,

schoolteacher has the field to himself.

"If I could only get just a little better start on that first hurdle," said Jones recently, "I just might be able to shave a tenth of a second off the time."

The broad jump? Just four nights ago, Ralph Boston of Tennessee A&I became the first jumper in history to soar over 26 feet indoors. He made 26-1¾, and the end is not in sight.

Among the muscle men, Hal Connolly of Los Angeles has the only toss over 70 feet in the 35-pound weight throw, strictly an indoor event. His great heave went 71-2½ last year in the national AAU championships.

75-FOOT TOSS?

Next Saturday when he meets up with arch-rival Bob Backus, he'll probably break the record. The magic figure now is 75 feet.

Even the unglamorous two-mile relay has a new magic figure. When Seton Hall clocked 7:33.9 back in 1942 on a 9-lap track, no one thought the mark ever would be broken.

Earlier this season, Manhattan sent out a two-mile team that hit the tape in 7:32.8. The new magic figure: Under 7:30. Manhattan Coach George Eastment, normally an ultra-conservative bloke, admits he has the team to get under the figure.

Lakers Knocked Out Of Running

EXHIBITION

Buzz Fazio To Bowl At Nave Lanes

Buzz Fazio, one of the top bowling champions on the Brunswick advisory staff, will appear at Nave Lanes at 8 p.m. Friday to bowl an exhibition match with Don Bickford, recent Marin County entrant in the All-Star Tournament held in San Bernardino. Bickford finished sixth this top tournament.

Fazio, a former ABC Masters champion, is regarded as one of the top team leaders in the history of bowling. He captained the famed Strohs team which won the ABC team championship three times.

Last year Fazio won the Maxie Kosof Endurance Classic for the third time.

Fazio also has a record of 28 perfect 300 games, was the first man to roll an 800 series on television and rolled a 300 in the ABC All-Star tournament in 1958.

While at Nave Lanes Friday Fazio will display new Brunswick equipment and give bowling tips.

S.R. Cadet Wins High National Rifle Rating

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Expert Rifleman Medal, second highest award in American Junior shooting, has been won by Charles Reems Billings of the San Rafael Military Academy, the National Rifle Assn. announced here today.

Shooting several hundred targets in the last few months, the new expert marksman fired his way through 13 lower NRA qualifications to achieve his new high rating. With one more set of targets to fire the new expert will up his rating to Distinguished Rifleman, the select top rating for the junior shooters of the nation.

The new junior expert is a member of the San Rafael Military Academy Rifle Club.

Twogood Has No Alibis For Loss

LOS ANGELES (P)—There are no alibis from Southern California Basketball Coach Forrest Twogood on the Trojans' loss last week to Washington.

"We played one of our better games of the year," Twogood told the Basketball Writers Association Monday. "Washington simply was better."

"It was the roughest game we've played since I've been at Southern California."

Sentence Due Larkspur Man

Thomas M. Redmayne Jr. of Larkspur will be sentenced Thursday for resisting arrest

Monday when stopped by a San Rafael police officer.

He pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court.

Officer Richard Douglas said he stopped Redmayne about 2 a.m. at Fourth and E Street for investigation of a possible traffic violation. Officer Douglas said Redmayne put up a fight, ripping off his police badge and necktie.

Marin Will Not Apply For Civil Defense Fund

Marin County's application for federal contributions to the county civil defense program will be withdrawn, the board of supervisors decided yesterday.

Administrator Alan Bruce recommended the withdrawal. He said no civil defense activity would be restricted as result. Bruce at former meetings had pointed out that somebody must be kept full time on civil defense work to get federal subsidy of 50 per cent of the county's civil defense outlay. He said Mrs. Jean Rogers, who had been allocated fulltime to try out the plan, was leaving and that the work could be absorbed part-time by Mrs. Jean Smith.

On instruction of the supervisors Bruce got up detailed figures to show that the expected monthly federal subsidy of $328 could be saved locally by other means. He said that if the subsidy were continued the county would be forced to add more staff raising county costs even after 50 per cent reimbursement.

The supervisors finally decided to go along with Bruce's thinking, which means further cutback of his office staff to one supervising clerk. But they refused to authorize Bruce to hire Mrs. Rogers for occasional work on an hourly basis, telling him to come in again when the need arose.

County Due Million Dollars For Use On Fairgrounds

By the end of 1964, Marin County probably will have received a million dollars in state funds for its county fair—provided the money is used as allocated—the county board of supervisors was told yesterday.

Michael Mitchell, assistant county auditor, reported thus far $296,826 of state fair funds have been spent on development of Marin's county fairgrounds at the civic center. The state has allocated an additional $288,500.

"We've got to spend it in order to get it," said Supervisor William Gnoss.

Mitchell agreed. He said about $400,000 will be provided the county from pari-mutuel race receipts through 1946, in addition to the money already spent or allocated.

Tenants Unit Asks Delay On Co-op Plan

The Marin City Tenants Council last night decided to ask the Marin County Redevelopment Agency not to make a decision on developer James H. Scheuer's proposal for co-operative apartments until a survey can be made to determine if the tenants can afford them.

The tenants council asked the agency to make this survey. Co-op apartments, to rent at $115 for a two-bedroom unit and $125 for a three-bedroom unit, were proposed by Scheuer as a means of keeping the cost of the apartments down. Non-co-op apartments would cost more, he said, because of higher financing charges, and less expensive apartments would be apt to turn into slums in about 15 years.

The council voted to work with Mrs. Jacqueline Smith, program director for the Marin council of community services, to set up meetings to consider the advantages and disadvantages of co-ops.

Questionnaires will be sent out to learn whether residents would like a name change for Marin City, said Hardy Westmore, publicity chairman.

Union School Tax Increase Vote Slated

Residents of Union School District in North Marin will be asked April 18 to approve a tax increase from the present 80-cent rate to $1.10 per $100 assessed valuation.

The increase in the rate would affect the approximately 20 families in the district, mainly ranchers, who support the one-room school on the Petaluma-Point Reyes Road, four miles south of Petaluma.

There are now 18 students in grades first through sixth grades.

Polls for the election will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the basement of the Peter Giacomelli residence, 4915 D Street Extension, Petaluma.

School trustees say the increase might make possible a raise for teacher Mrs. S. J. Wierschke, help put a new roof on the school and build a new garage, and help in paying tuition for district students who attend Petaluma High School.

Trustees also noted that the day-to-day operating costs of the school were rising.

Trustees In Fairfax To Discuss Bus Use

Discussion of bus transportation in the Fairfax School District for next year will come before the trustees tonight at 7:45 p.m. in the multi-use room of the Manor School.

Supt. Homer L. Sisk will report on the administration's investigation of comparative costs of leasing or purchasing a bus.

Fashion Focus Will Salute The '61 Easter Seal Drive

Easter and Easter Seals go together like milady and her new spring bonnet!

In fact, this favorite spring-time foursome will be the center of attraction on Tuesday, Feb. 28, when the most exciting spring fashions from leading American designers will be "Sealed in Easter Style" at Rickey's popular Fashion Focus luncheon.

The fashionable salute will be a tribute to the Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., as it launches its important Easter Seal drive on March 2. With more than 40,000 Easter Seal envelopes ready to go into the mail on that day, the Marin Society, the affiliated groups, the Hobby Group and Recreation Unit, the friends of Arequipa and the many sororities who assist the Crippled Children's Society will receive a Fashion Focus "well done" at the pre-Easter fashion luncheon in their honor.

Just as Easter signifies a rebirth in spring, so the success of the Easter Seal drive in Marin will mean a rebirth for the many handicapped children and adults who benefit from the society's wonderful, wide-spread program.

Fashionably, "Sealed in Easter Style" on Tuesday will be 24 harmoniously accessorized outfits to win a stamp of approval from every age and figure type. Since fashions for 1961 don't stress just one look and one color, guests will find that Rayma Armstrong has selected silk costumes, and town-wear, casuals and coordinates, spring coats and late-day looks to please the whims of everyone.

Blooming under the most luscious spring millinery in years will be hair styles by a Ross and San Rafael salon of beauty, each to star in the Easter parade.

Reservations for the 12:30 luncheon honoring Marin Society for Crippled Children and Adults may be made by calling Rickey's. The luncheons are planned for public enjoyment with luncheon at 12:30 and the fashions at 1 p.m.

HERE'S A delightful dress for Easter and all through the spring; in fact, it is an all-year-round fabric and fashion. A dress of charming simplicity with bias yoke and sleeves, unpressed panel pleats front and back, easy fit, it has a tie belt of leather. The fabric is an all worsted wool sheer.

A VERY HANDSOME, very dressy coat is this one of creamy white all wool ottoman. The ribbed surface adds interest to sleeves, pocket welts and importantly notched revers. The low, loose, three-piece belt swings over a deep, unpressed pleat in the center back. White pearl buttons are used down the front and on the belt.

Official Visit For Druids Circle Slated

Joseph Leos, grand arch druidess, will make her official visit to San Rafael Circle, UAO 137, at Carpenters Hall, San Rafael on Sunday, Feb. 26 at 2 p.m. The distinguished visitor will be escorted to the seat of honor by Yolanda Smith, junior past archdruidess and a team composed of Mesdames Val Nichelini, Leo Schwab, Harold Keelen, Antone Rostoni, John Fradelizia, Maria Soldavini, Martha McNalley, Olga Borrachia, Bessie Brown and Anna Keelan. They will carry character dolls and march as Mesdames Lloyd Ely and Paul Kraft sing, "Oh You Beautiful Doll." Mrs. Agnes Farrar will play the musical accompaniment, Verna Healey, arch druidess, will welcome the grand arch druidess to the circle.

Decorations of the hall and banquet table are being arranged by Mesdames Kraft, Vincent Rattini, Peter Cervie, Nettie Schieve. Refreshments are in charge of Mesdames Lloyd Ely, Rostoni, Anna Ferri and Emma Gerrish.

Representatives of many California circles will be present for the official visit.

Dance Council Takes Part In School Benefit

Fourteen couples from the Marin Dance Council, Inc. participated in "International Intrigue," the foreign bazaar for the benefit of the American Field Service, at Redwood High School, Friday night.

The dancers wore elaborate copies of authentic costumes representing at least eight different countries—all made by the dances themselves after extensive research.

Their initial presentation of dances represented Hungary, Greece, Italy, Bavaria and early California. "Fun dancing" which followed included many other countries ranging from Sweden to Mexico.

Most of the participants, representing folk dance clubs in the county, are members of the Council-sponsored Workshop class each Tuesday night under the direction of Bill and Ann D'Alvy in the Redwood High School gymnasium.

Larkspur Auxiliary Plans 2 Fund Raisers

Two fund raising events to be carried out jointly with their American Legion Post in Larkspur were planned by members of Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary at their recent meeting.

The events which will benefit the organization's work in Americanism, hospital activities, CARE donations for study country Chile, aids to community health drives and other general programs will be a Legion cooked Ravioli dinner on Feb. 25 and a one-day rummage sale on Feb. 27, both to be held at the Larkspur Legion Hall.

A round table forum led by Mrs. Thomas Smith of Corte Madera also sounded the need for citizen protection against possible thermonuclear attack.

Adopted was the resolution to write the local, state and national legislators, requesting consideration be given to building community type fallout shelters in California due to the many target areas within the state.

Participating in the need for civil defense measures were Mesdames James Green, William Wagner, Richard Booher, Ronald Specht, Fred Gram and Francis Fugate.

Welcomed to the Twin Cities Unit as a new member was Mrs. Santos Lopez of Corte Madera.

Redwoods Presbyterian Church Setting For Loy-Hughes Rites

A floor length traditional gown of white imported French Chantilly lace was worn by Patricia Eileen Hughes of Mill Valley when she became the bride of Samuel Frank Loy, Jr., Saturday at the Redwoods Presbyterian Church in Larkspur.

Lace scalloped outlined the portrait neckline and the hemline which fell into a chapel train. The sleeves were three-quarter length and she wore a single strand of pearls. The veil fell from a crown of tiny pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, hyacinths and sweet peas.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Hughes of Mill Valley and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frank Loy Sr. of Monroeville, Pa.

Rev. Wayne Hansen officiated at the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony.

Janice Fuller of Mill Valley was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Joan Gillfillan of Mill Valley and Helene Mills of Los Angeles. Each attendant was gowned in peppermint green silk organza over taffeta with a bell shaped skirt and a boat neckline. They wore tiny headpieces of the same material with matching veils and slippers. The attendants carried spring bouquets of pink carnations, tulips and peonies.

Patricia was given in marriage by Robert Collier, a long time family friend and they were preceded down the aisle by the flower girl, Katherine Gillfillan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Gillfillan of Mill Valley. Katherine wore a gown of white lace and her cummerbund of peppermint green matched the attendants' gowns. She carried a basket of pink spring flowers and wore a band of pink flowers in her hair.

The church was decorated with white flowers and white candles in tall gold candelabra.

Best man was Joseph Campbell of Mill Valley. James Howe of Mill Valley and William Price of San Diego performed the ushering duties.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hughes chose a toast and violet print dress with a toast colored coat lined in the print material. Her accessories were violet and she wore orchids. Mrs. Loy was gowned in a teal blue silk sheath and also wore orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Mill Valley home of the bride's parents for 125 friends. The three tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, the former also wearing a lace gown like the real bride's. Miss Valerie Wright was in charge of the guest book.

Patricia is the granddaughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes of Half Moon Bay. She is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and is employed by Marin County Abstract and Title Co. of San Rafael.

Sam has one brother George of Monroeville. His grandmother is Mrs. Mary Pike, also of Monroeville. He is graduate of Brownsville, Pa. High School and is employed by Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. of Mill Valley.

Before leaving on her wedding trip the new Mrs. Loy changed to a lavender print suit with beige accessories. She wore white orchids.

Following a week's trip to Carmel and southern California the young couple will be at home to their friends at 10 Locke Lane, Mill Valley.

Masterpoint Bridge Winners Are Announced

The Thursday Afternoon Duplicate Bridge Club's Masterpoint and Junior tournament were held at the San Rafael Improvement Club Thursday. There were 15 tables in play.

Winners in the Masterpoint were North-South Mrs. Claire Cooke, San Anselmo, and Mrs. June Gunther, Belvedere; East-West, Mrs. Mervyn Mazza and Mrs. Glenn Paulsen, Greenbrae.

Second North-South, Mrs. Florence Perrine, Mill Valley, and James Carbaugh, Fairfax; East-West, Mrs. Hellen Baker, Mill Valley, and Mrs. James C. Myers, Kentfield.

Mrs. Frank Batug, Mill Valley, and Mrs. Joseph Strittmatter, Belvedere, were third North-South and Mrs. Thomas A. Cusik, Kentfield, and Mrs. Ann Tevaloff, Greenbrae, were third East-West.

In Tournament B Mrs. Sydney Geiger and Mrs. Paul Hopkins of San Rafael were first; Mrs. Robert Finn and Mrs. Louis Stefani of San Rafael were second, and Mrs. S. F. Kellam and Mrs. W. MacDougall, both of San Anselmo, were third.

Thursday there will be a special Junior Playoff for Tournament B players and a regular major game, both starting at 12:30. The clubhouse will be open at noon.

Opera Stars Entertain Music Club

One of Thursday Musical Club's most exciting programs was presented last week when four stars appeared in scenes from their operas. Their voices were flawless and their costumes lovely.

The John Tappendorff Jr.'s beautiful San Rafael home was an ideal setting for the concert. It began with Diane Trethowen, lyric soprano, and Kenneth Wahn, tenor, singing the duet from La Boheme by Puccini. Marjorie Broughton, mezzo soprano, soloed in the letter scene from La Pericholla by Offenbach. A then a Smernes, lyric coloratura soprano, and Wahn sang Un di Felice, duet from Verdi's La Traviata. Clifford Bartlett accompanied the singers on the piano.

Outstanding was Flower Song from Carmen (Bizet), with Wahn as soloist, Miss Trethowen singing Dore Sono (Marriage of Figaro), Miss Smernes and Miss Broughton in a duet, Butterfly, from Puccini's opera, a trio composed of the three women singing Rosenkvalie by Richard Strauss. The four guest artists concluded with Libiamo from Traviata.

Delmar Clinton, club president, welcomed the members and their guests and Mrs. Cloyd Kimball, program chairman, introduced the artists.

The program was followed by a tea. Mrs. Carlo Caletti, tea hostess, was assisted by Mesdames Hoeter Nelson, Arthur Feidler, Dudley Miller and George Leftwich.

Women Voters Change One Unit Meeting

Mrs. James Heassler, unit chairman of the League of Women Voters of Mill Valley, has announced postponement of tomorrow's 9:45 a.m. unit meeting to Wednesday, March 1, at the same time because of the conflict with the holiday.

Place will remain the same, residence of Mrs. S. I. Kayakawa, 225 Eldridge Avenue, and the topic will be the Mill Valley Master Plan, preceded by an explanation of the proposed April High School Bond Measure presented by Mesdames J. E. Hawley and S. J. Rice.

The other regularly scheduled units on Feb. 21 and 23, will be held as usual in Sutton Manor and Belvedere and will feature the South Marin Area Master Plans.

Yolansdale P-TA Sets Founders' Day

The Yolansdale PTA will honor its past presidents and past honorary life members at the Founders' Day meeting, Thursday.

The meeting will be held in the kindergarten room of the Yolansdale School. Program chairman for the evening is Mrs. Edward Tonini, who will present "This is your Life Yolansdale P-TA," Mrs. Joseph DeMaestri will give the Honorary Life Presentation.

Welcoming guests will be Mrs. Ross Akers, who along with president Mrs. James Orr, extends a cordial invitation to all past presidents, and past honorary life members, to attend.

Many Attend School Art, Science Fair

Principal Bob Johnston of Sleepy Hollow and Hidden Valley schools welcomed crowds of parents and youngsters Thursday evening who came to view the efforts of the students presented at the Art and Science Fair in the multi-purpose room of Sleepy Hollow School.

A committee of three Sir Francis Drake High School boys, Kern Sibbald, Pat Burke and Gene Andrews, were on hand to review and appraise the work done by grade level boys and girls.

The exhibits displayed by the seventh and eighth grades included space satellites, planets and the atom; the workings of batteries, electric motors and oscillators; a furnace made of flower pot, brick and electric cord. There were reports on oysters and cultured pearls, the story of sugar, optical illusions, the chicken industry, soil, the wheel, synthetic rubber. Botany was represented by a chemical garden and examples of seed-sprouting. Biology reports were made on the heart, carefully diagrammed, and other human organs, with animal specimens neatly labeled in jars. There was an impressive exhibit on the evolution of man with illustrations of cyclostomes, vertebrates, reptiles, mammals and the prehistoric Peking, Neanderthal and Cro-Magnon men. There was an ant farm. A fine exhibit of South Africa's deepest mine showed careful work.

In the science department the fifth and sixth grades offered a schematic design for a "foxhole" radio, an imposing missile base, detailed relief and contour maps of Sleepy Hollow; there were reports on magnets, the uses of plastic and a blueprint of the House of the Future. A tiny, perfectly detailed Early American store intrigued the younger visitors particularly.

The "younger set," not to be overlooked, included the kindergarten's clay figures of prehistoric animals and wild and wonderful fingerpainting; second and third grades exhibited Klee next pictures, potato prints and free-form art that was truly "free."

Education For Childbirth Class

A new series of classes in the Education for Childbirth program will begin during the first week of March. They will start on Thursday afternoon, March 2, and Tuesday evening, March 7.

Mrs. Gunhild Brown and Mrs. William Weeks, who are registered physical therapists, will be the instructors. The classes are conducted in San Rafael at the physical therapy office of Mrs. Gunhild Brown, 711 D Annex.

The eight week course includes training in exercises for relaxation, breathing techniques and posture. Emphasis is given to the understanding of the processes of pregnancy and labor. Expectant fathers are invited to attend the Parent's Class where films are shown.

The expectant mother must have her doctor's written permission before she can enroll in the series.

MR. AND MRS. Frederick Peter Codoni are shown following their recent wedding at St. Gabriel's Church in San Francisco. The bride is the former Sheila Ann Kane. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Q. Codoni of San Rafael. (Du Charme photo)

Codoni-Kane Rites In San Francisco

San Francisco's St. Gabriel's Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Sheila Ann Kane of San Francisco and Frederick Peter Codoni of San Rafael.

Officiating for the 11 o'clock ceremony was the bride's brother, Rev. James Kane of Pueblo, Colo.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles E. Kane of San Francisco and the late Mr. Kane. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Q. Codoni of San Rafael.

Given in marriage by her brother, Maj. Charles E. Kane Jr., the bride wore a gown of white bouquet taffeta fashioned with Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The bodice, skirt and chapel-length train were trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls. Her three-tiered French illusion veil was held by a cap of lace and seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Preceding the bride to the altar gown in rose pink satin frocks styled with bell skirts and three-quarter sleeves were Mrs. Marie Gumcio, matron of honor, and bridesmaids, Mrs. Patricia Harrigan and Darlene Williams. They carried long stemmed red roses.

David Codoni served his brother as best man and ushers were John Burns, Frank Rinaldi, Gerald Souza and Robert Leary.

The bride was graduated from San Francisco College for Women.

The bridegroom, who is the grandson of Mrs. Eudora Codoni of San Rafael, was graduated from the University of San Francisco.

Following a wedding trip in Southern California, the newlyweds will take up their residence in Marin.

Many Parties Are To Precede Delta Gamma Night In Tiburon

For the Delta Gamma Alumnae sponsored opening production of "Portrait in Black," presented by the Cove Players on Friday night in Tiburon many parties are planned.

For cocktails and dinner before the play Mr. and Mrs. David W. Cook of Sausalito will be hosts to the P. A. Bateses, Delman Smiths, John Merrills, William Ballards, Benton Sparkes and the Peter Ribars. The Thomas Bahrens and John Hoffmires have also asked guests for cocktails and dinner. Their party will be at the Bahrens' home in Tiburon and they'll be joined by Dr. and Mrs. Dunlap Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. James Zeigler, the Stanley Petersons, Thomas Drohans, Edward Wards, Donald Mitchells, and the Ted Beardsleys. A pre-play dinner party is planned by Captain and Mrs. Nordmark Williams of Belvedere, when their guests will be the Ralph C. Noahs and the James Robert Kettenbachs. Also in Belvedere, having a dinner before the play are the W. B. Clums, whose guests will be the E. A. Zanns, Ed Misurakas, Gibson Kingsburys and Irving Lipschultzes.

From San Francisco Dr. H. L. Gartshore and his wife will bring their guests—the H. W. Guppys, Miss Connie Tydemann, the D. J. Sutherlands of Stockton and the Jerome Adamases of Sausalito. Mrs. James E. Lewis of Belvedere will have three guests for the evening, as will Mrs. Paula Kern of San Rafael. The Robert J. Dreher of Greenbrae and Leigh Athearn of Mill Valley each have reservations for four. There will also be four in the group hosted by the J. C. Dodds of Mill Valley. Eleven tickets have been reserved by Mrs. Albert Luberski of Belvedere, and two each by the J. F. O'Connells of Kent Woodlands, the F. E. Stolltes of Greenbrae, and Dr. and Mrs. Philip Morgan of San Rafael. Additional reservations have been made by the Russell Bakers of Kent Woodlands, Mrs. A. F. Bridge of Belvedere, Judge Richard Sims and Mrs. Sims and by the John H. Hoefers.

Dining at the World Trade Club before the play will be Mr. and Mrs. John Barrie Jr. with their guests the Ed Arndts, A Delta Gamma new to Marin, Mrs. Alan Feder and her husband, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Clarke of San Rafael.

Pre-play guests of the Arthur Sestaks in their new home in the Marin Terrace section of Mill Valley will be the J. D. Joslyns, Theodore Struves, William E. Searles, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Evans, and the James Pattersons. The Jack Smiths have asked to dinner before the play Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Jenkins, the Leo Perriers and the Lionel Stotts.

Dining with the Donald MacRaes of Ross will be Mr. and Mrs. James T. McLaughlin, the Van Logans, and the D. G. Severins. Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ross will have as guests Messrs. and Mesdames William McCall and A. John Hirsch. Reservations for three have been made by Col. and Mrs. George H. Steel of San Rafael.

Co-chairman of the benefit, Mrs. Albert Bianchi, and her husband have asked Mr. and Mrs. T. J. DeLasaux Jr. as their guests. Four couples who will attend together are the Walter and Edmond Coyneases, Conrad Abbotts and William Donohoes. The William H. Perdues of Mill Valley will entertain Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Milliken from Vallejo.

Among those planning after-theater parties are the Frosty Winters whose guests will be the Benjamin Bordenes, Carl S. Browns, Richard Williamsons, William J. Murrays, Justin Handloes and the Roy Robertses. Also for a late evening party the Delta Gamma's president, Mrs. George W. Ball and her husband will entertain the Warren Heimans, Stewart Harrisons, Edward Frenches, and Jack Murphys. And entertaining in their new Kent Woodlands home will be the Robert W. Gibbons whose guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dumm of Walnut Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pierce of San Francisco.

Proceeds from the event will be used for Delta Gamma's philanthropy of Aid to the Blind.

PHOTOGRAPHED FOLLOWING their recent wedding at Mission San Carlos Barromeo in Carmel are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Joseph Kelleher. The bride is the former Donna Bari Zander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmund Zander of Ross. The newlyweds will reside in Kentfield. (Du Charme photo)

Be Kind To Cashmere

Here are tips for prolonging the life of garments made from the luxury fiber, cashmere.

Wash most items instead of drycleaning because the laundering agitation renews the softness of the fiber and keeps it fluffy. However, check instructions written on the tag of the garment to be sure of what you should do.

To wash a sweater: Make a pattern tracing the shape on a piece of paper. Submerge in warm or cool water in which the soap has already been dissolved, and soak for about five minutes.

Agitate slightly but avoid rubbing. Rinse without agitation at least twice in cool water. Roll in bath towels and spread on a dry towel. Dry away from the heat. Adjust the sweater to the size and shape of the paper cut-out.

Keep sweaters flat in a drawer to retain their shapes.

After each wearing air and brush the garment before putting it away.

Garden Section Talk On Spring Planting

"Planning Your Spring Garden," will be the subject of the talk to be given by I. K. Gordon of the Red Hill Nursery, at the Garden Section meeting of the Tamalpais Centre Woman's Club, Friday, Feb. 24 at 1:30 p.m.

Dessert and coffee will be served at noon by Mesdames Andrew Buhman, Marius Righetti, A. A. Coddington and Wesley Swadley.

Members are asked to bring plants for the plant table, which is in charge of Mrs. Thomas Pring.

Test Cases Of The Careless Roommates

By VIVIAN BROWN

A girl can take just so much from a roommate—school girl or career girl. After that she looks for a solution or wants to dissolve the partnership, judging by letters.

Here are some:
Q. "What do you suggest doing about a roommate who is sloppy? She drops her clothes everywhere. Even if reminded doesn't pick them up if she is not in the mood. I like her otherwise. How can I cure her of this bad habit?"

A. Stop being a maid to her. Tolerate her sloppiness for a few days, leaving tossed garments around until she gets disgusted and picks them up.

Q. "My roommate is inconsiderate. She studies late, burning a bright light and I can't sleep. Earlier, she listens to the radio, reads or talks on the telephone when I am trying to study. How can I solve this without causing too much friction?"

A. If you cannot get together on study periods, suggest she play the radio in a low tone. The problem of the bright light could be solved by making her a gift of the goose-necked lamp that she could use on her desk. These are inexpensive and usually keep the light over the necessary area.

Q. "I work as a salesgirl in a department store. I was hired in summer and when they offered me a permanent job, I transferred to night school. A girl who works with me suggested sharing an apartment, and although I was not too fond of her I decided to do it to cut expenses. She doesn't give me phone messages and has been horning in on my dates who call when I am at school. She also uses my hair brush, lipstick and handkerchiefs. Don't you think I'd be justified in moving out some day when she is at work?"

A. It isn't necessary to put yourself on her level to prove your point. Tell her you have decided to live alone, would like to be paid your share of the furniture or make a deal on splitting the lot. It would be a good idea to find other living quarters before you strain relations.

Q. "My sister and I share a room and bath. There is a vanity in the bathroom, and she spends every waking minute in front of it. I cannot take a bath or wash my hair without begging her to get out. She is my mother's favorite, so I can't get help there. Her mirror mania makes me late for school and dates. Should I tell her friends and embarrass her into releasing the mirror?"

A. Why not get into the bathroom before her some morning, take a leisurely bath, and wash your hair and ignore her pleas. Maybe she'll realize another's dilemma in the same situation.

Q. "What would you do if your roommate talked on the phone all evening so that you could not get a call or invite anyone in? We live in a one-room apartment, attending school a few miles away."

A. I'd ask her to agree to two phones. When she considers having the entire responsibility of one phone she may not be willing to tie it up. Or have a friend call you each evening just as you get home, then have a long-winded conversation yourself.

As Travel Booms So Does Sportswear Fashion Division

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—As travel booms, so does one major facet of the fashion industry—the sportswear division.

One leading New York clothing manufacturer says that America on the go has helped boost the sportswear market to the point where we women now spend approximately $1.5 billion annually on everything from ski pants to separates to bathing suits.

"Sportswear," said Vincent Draddy, president of David Crystal, Inc., "is an industry in itself. Its explosive growth can be compared only to the boom in travel which has zoomed in the past few years from summer vacations and Cook's tours to a hundred million Americans on the move—around the calendar year, around the world, north, east, south and west, from pine trees to apple trees.

"Wherever they go, the great need and use is for sportswear."

Draddy, in a talk before the New York Fashion Group, an organization of women in the fashion and allied fields, said that sportswear has become "Part of the life of America, the part that differs from all the rest of the world . . . and I might add, the envy of women in every other nation in the world . . ."

The manufacturer said that to define the terms sportswear was difficult because the field always was growing—but he listed these stable categories: Knitwear, sweaters, swim suits, coordinates, play coordinates, separates with all their multiple sub-divisions of skirts, pants, tops and shirts, sun clothes, ski clothes action clothes, college clothes, party separates, at-home clothes, raincoats.

Approach Is Fresh, Easy For Classics

At this point in fashion, the overblouse, the pleated skirt, the coat and dress ensemble and the knit dress all sound like classic wardrobe staples. But, as seen in junior and young junior spring collections, they certainly don't look like it.

These "basics" are styled with dash and colored with verve, for an entirely new, this-season air. Add to them the many novel ideas in junior styling, and a picture emerges, of fashions as lively and forward-looking as the young set members who will wear them.

EASE TAKES LEAD
Relaxed ease, simplicity and good taste take the lead, in true spring '61 style, but there's lots of variety.

Sometimes, for instance, the junior look is "smart young career girl." Suits and dresses for day come in men's wear-like fabrics. There are classic glen plaids, herringbone tweeds, houndstooth checks. Pleats ripple, jackets are short—longer when there's an overblouse in the picture.

From afternoon on this look turns to soft crepe dresses, for feminine, young sophistication.

LOOK AT SPANISH
At other times, the junior look is distinctly Spanish. Fashions boast capes, boleros, ball fringe.

For juniors of every age are shirt dresses—fluid, figure-following, often ending in a low burst of pleats. The shift is seen in knit, with contrasting colors for a relaxed long-line look.

Alertness of juniors to new fashion trends, and their eagerness to try new fashions, means that they get an ample share of the news, attractively presented.

HIGHLIGHTS OF NEWS
Some of the highlights are: culottes, in knee-tickler to street length; "off-center" styling, including diagonal stripes, dresses that bare one shoulder, side closings and surplice necklines; bias cut dresses; color and fabric combinations; two-piece effects in one-piece dresses; sleeveless and collarless styling.

Junior fashions enter the color derby with pink, orange, turquoise, apricot, lilac, sea green—everything!

Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Plan Benefit Bridge On March 14, 15

Marin Alpha Delta Pi's met recently at the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keaton in San Rafael where they helped prepare Easter Seal envelopes for mailing.

Alpha Delta Pi is particularly interested in the work of the Marin County Society for Crippled Children and Adults since their sorority supports crippled children's groups internationally as its philanthropy.

A short business meeting was held as the members worked stuffing envelopes and new officers for the coming year were announced. Mrs. Bradford Muse of San Rafael will be president of the group and Mrs. Robert Zasso of San Anselmo will serve as vice president. Mrs. Willis Clark Jr. of Lucas Valley will be secretary and Mrs. Donald Guild of Kentfield, treasurer. Mrs. Everett Ellis of Mill Valley has accepted the responsibility of doing the publicity work for the group and Mrs. Donald McCaw and Mrs. Dale Frady will be Panhellenic chairman and assistant chairman respectively. Mrs. Leo Dobbins of San Anselmo will continue as philanthropy chairman for the next year.

Further plans for the one big fund raising event of the year were also discussed during the evening. This year it will be a benefit bridge held March 14 and 15 at various members homes throughout Marin. Both afternoon and evening games will be held both days. Tickets were distributed by Mrs. Zasso, chairman of the event, and bridge tallies were displayed and decorations to be used were explained by Mrs. Muse, chairman of the decoration committee.

Mrs. Robert DeVinney of Greenbrae, newest member of the group, was introduced. She and her family recently moved to Marin from Chicago, Ill. She is a graduate of Ohio State University where she belonged to Alpha Xi Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi. She and Mrs. Everett Ellis of Mill Valley will be assisting Mrs. Muse with decorations.

Those planning to open their homes for the benefit bridge are Mesdames James Rick-secker, Belvedere; A. L. Stewart, San Rafael; William Hagler, Greenbrae; Glen Widdows, Lucas Valley; Justus Craemer Jr., Greenbrae; George Fay, Mill Valley; Dorothy Waterman, Terra Linda; Robert DeVinny, Greenbrae; Jay Parks Mather, Lucas Valley.

Reservations are now open and tickets may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Sasso of San Anselmo.

Women Golfers Hold Luncheon

A patriotic theme was used for Friday's monthly luncheon meeting of the Mill Valley Women's Golf Club at the clubhouse. Table centerpieces were composed of arrangements of rosemary, with its blue flowers, and small American flags.

Forty-seven members and guests attended. Two former members reinstated and welcomed were Mesdames Parker Archer and Pat Walker.

The Swing Club prize donated by Mrs. Henry Seagle and Miss Marcia Lee was won by Mrs. Andrea Hahn.

In charge of the luncheon were Mesdames Glen Paulson, E. J. Hahn and Vollmar Thorne.

Members with the guests they entertained were Mesdames G. F. Conzelman and A. R. Waller; Jack Lentz and John Beatty; and James Goldsmith; W. P. Poole and Harold Truitt; and L. H. Sumpter and George Nolan and Velma Green.

Brookside P-TA To Hear Talk On Tax Dollars

Brookside P-TA will meet on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room at Brookside School.

Guest speaker will be Stephen Parodi, superintendent of San Anselmo schools. Parodi's subject will be "Your Tax Dollars and the School System."

Also, of interest, will be crafts, displayed, made by Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds during the past year. Mrs. Guido Zanotti's Blue Bird group will lead the flag salute. Mothers of first grade children will be hostesses.

Women's Alliance Sets Rummage Sale

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church of Marin is staging a "gigantic rummage sale" in the Mart Building, 3030 Bridgeway, Sausalito, Friday and Saturday, with doors open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. John Roberts of Mill Valley, general chairman, has enlisted workers from all over the county and has supervised collection of all kinds of home furnishings and clothing—some used and some new.

Already in place are washing machines and furniture, children's coats and dresses, shoes and hats and other things for all ages, as well as accessories for the home from lamps to vases and table linens.

Funds from this sale will go into the building of the new Unitarian Church of Marin, soon to be under construction atop one of the hills near San Rafael.

Mrs. Marge Washburn of Strawberry and Miss Elizabeth Sargent of Kentfield have been busy making posters and placing them, and Mrs. Lloyd S. Linton of Sausalito is in charge of publicity.

Others working on the committee are Mesdames Edward O. Allen, Raymond Loen, Leo Dwyer and Charles O'Brien and Miss Carolyn Nelson from San Anselmo; Mesdames J. M. Stubblebine, William O'Brien, Janet Todd Young, Emerson Daggett from Mill Valley; Mrs. Lillian Torrence of Corte Madera and Miss Helen Callbeck of Fairfax; Mrs. Arthur Argiewicz of Ross; and Mesdames John Misenheimer, W. E. Pratt, Ilse Nehm and Robert Bunney of Santa Venetia.

Assisting with selling plans are Mesdames Austin Ripley and Manuel Morris of San Rafael and Jerry Belcher and C. F. Schneider of Larkspur.

James A. Chapman, Bride In Mexico

Honeymooning in Acapulco, Mexico, are Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Chapman. Following their wedding at the home of his parents, the Rowland Chapmans of Kent Woodlands, the couple flew to Mexico City and drove to Acapulco via Taxco. On their return they will reside on Nob Hill in San Francisco.

The bride, the former Diane Lee Micheli, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando John Micheli of Walnut Grove.

Judge Jordan L. Martinelli officiated at the 4 p.m. wedding for which the bride was gown in white lace. The bodice had long sleeves and high round neckline. The short skirt was bell shaped. A cluster of lilies of the valley in her hair held the bride's short veil and the same flowers were in her bouquet.

Matron of honor, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Paul Purdom (Betsy Chapman) wore a moss green silk sheath dress and matching veil. Ivy and white daisies were in her bouquet.

Rowland Chapman was his son's best man. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Micheli wore a green silk print sheath. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk print chiffon. Both mothers had white orchids in their hair.

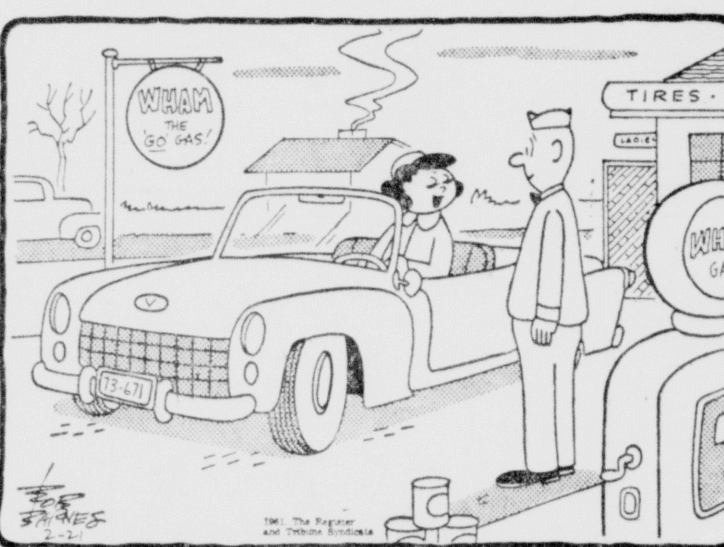

About 50 guests attended the reception at the Chapman home following the ceremony. Lilies of the valley topped the three tiered wedding cake and fruit blossoms, camellias and candles decorated the rooms.

The bride is a graduate of Rio Vista High School and University of California class of '57. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. She is a sister of Jan Micheli, freshman at San Jose State College, and Marty Micheli.

The bridegroom was graduated from University of California in 1952 where he belonged to Sigma Nu fraternity. He has two sisters, the younger, Patricia Chapman, is a senior at Dominican.

St. David's Day Banquet Set March 4

The Welsh-Americans will honor St. David, the patron saint of Wales, at a banquet and concert at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco on March 4 at 6:30 p.m.

One of Marin's favorite Welsh baritone, Byron Jones, will be a featured soloist. Jones is a music educator and director of the San Rafael High School a Cappella Choir. He is a director of the Byron Jones Chorus which is a newly-formed group in San Rafael and is soloist at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in San Francisco. Jones also adds composing to his list of talents.

Recently this fine baritone performed in Bach's B minor Mass with the Bach Choir under the direction of Waldemar Jacobsen at Calvary Presbyterian Church in San Francisco.

Jones' accompanist will be Mrs. Alfred Thomson, who was also born in Wales. Mrs. Thomson is the Marin representative for the Welsh society and is taking reservations.

Course Banishes Myths Regarding GI's Home Life

BERLIN (UPI)—German brides going to America think cocktails are a must before meals and blue jeans the "must" uniform for shopping.

Those are two ideas about life in the United States, based on observing the U.S. military here, cleared up in an eight-week course for West Berlin girls who have married American soldiers.

The course covers everything from cocktails—optional—through potatoes—small portions—to shorts—not too short.

It is designed to prepare for life in the United States the 300 Berlin girls who marry Americans every year.

The girls get instruction in American fashion, diet, geography, government, history, speech, and habits.

The brides love the course but some soldier husbands have the suspicion that the American women's club here established it to recruit the Berlin girls into the American matriarchy.

They had visions of the docile, affectionate wives of German folklore being turned into the grasping suffragettes of American folklore.

Both conceptions are hackneyed and untrue but nevertheless the Women's Club gave assurances it was not plotting to change anyone's outlook on life or "Weltanschauung."

"We do not discuss the role of women in America as compared to Germany," said Mrs. Richard Ament, of 684 North Main, Sebastopol, Cal.

She and two other wives of American army officers are the instructors. They are Mrs. Vernon Pike of Bloomfield, N.J., and Mrs. Donald Green, of De Ridder, La.

The American wives praise the German wives. They say the average German girl is very well educated and knows a surprising amount about the United States and its history.

The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

New Approach Can Give U.S. A Cold War Advantage

Earlier this month a bill was introduced in the U.S. Senate which could have tremendous implications in the conduct of the Cold War. In fact, it might become the most important piece of legislation for the peace of the world to be considered by this or any other Congress.

The bill is known as the Freedom Academy Bill. It calls for the creation of a Freedom Commission to plan and execute long-range operations aimed at winning the non-military part of the Cold War.

In plain language, this means fighting the Communists with every weapon we have, short of actual war. It means taking the offensive instead of waiting for the Reds to move first. It means acknowledging that the Cold War is all-out political warfare.

Riding in tandem with the Freedom Commission will be a Freedom Academy. This, say the bill's sponsors, would be a kind of diplomatic West Point at which Cold War managers—the diplomats, department officials, business leaders, scientists and others—would be trained in all the skills needed to carry on total political warfare.

The Freedom Academy Bill was introduced by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, (R-S.D.). However, its co-sponsors include Democratic Senators Paul Douglas (Ill.), Thomas Dodd (Conn.) and George Smathers (Fla.) and fellow Republican Clifford Case (N.J.). Similar legislation is being introduced in the House by Congressman Syd Herlong (D-Fla.) and Walter Judd (R-Minn.).

Senator Mundt noted one of the real tragedies in our recent conduct of the Cold War: we have devoted most of our energies to meeting Communist attacks, rather than going on the political, psychological and propaganda offensives ourselves. We have met the enemy piecemeal, one thrust at a time. We have had no plan other than to react to his plans.

It seems to us that one of the most cogent reasons for approving the Freedom Academy Bill is the admission implicit in such passage that the Cold War is total, long-range war. It may not turn "hot" in our lifetime, but chances are it won't become any less total. Nor will the stakes become any less high.

Entrenched bureaucracy in Washington has opposed bold action that could have put us on the offensive in the Cold War. It can happen again.

If you favor creation of the Freedom Academy to match the all-out political warfare policies of the Red world, let our Congressman Clement W. Miller and our Senators Clair Engle and Thomas Kuchel know your views.

A STYLISH GETAWAY FAILS

A hitherto model prisoner made a walking escape from an honor farm in California. Being a Texan, he felt the need of a horse.

Not only did he rent a horse with his spending money, but he equipped himself with a large sombrero, spurs and chaps.

Things went well until the escapee's hat blew off. As he dismounted to recover it, the animal ran away. He rented a second mount but a highway patrolman stopped him while he was riding in this unusual style along a freeway.

"He said he didn't know where he was going," the patrolman related, "he just wanted to get some place else."

Most people who don't know where they're going seldom get anywhere. Use as much creativeness and energy in finding keys to world problems as others do in creating them. Then you can be sure that God will show you where you are going—and see that you get there.

"I therefore so run, not as at an uncertainty; I so fight, not as one beating the air."

(1 Corinthians 9:26)

Make me know where I am headed, O good Father, and help others along the same way.

Recognize Any Of These Monday Morning Types At Your Office?

NEW YORK (P)—How you meet Mondays is a real test of your character.

Nobody in the office has a hard time getting through Friday. It is the last day of the work week, and everybody is perched on cloud No. 9, twittering with joy as he waits for the clock to strike quitting time.

But your office Monday bird differs from the Friday bird. He knows the work week is just beginning, and the freedom of Friday seems a continent away. He tends to chirp a different tune.

Yet it takes different kinds of birds to make any aviary. Probably if you look around your office some of the following types of Monday morning birds will seem familiar:

The late-rising pub crawler

—He flutters in on one wing with hollow eyes and disheveled plumage, hangs up his coat and hat, then sneaks down to the corner tavern for an eye-opener.

The puffed-up virago—She is the mother superior of the secretarial pool, and gets in 15 minutes early so she can be sure to catch and bowl out any little stenographer who arrives five seconds late.

The moulting mourning dove—The thought of facing another whole week of labor overwhelms him. He sits, droop-feathered, at his desk, emitting hollow cries, hoping someone will say, "Man, you are sick. You ought to go home." No one does. On Mondays no one has any sympathy for the other fellow.

The fear-tufted finch—Burdened with secret guilt, he flits in at 8 a.m., hoping to finish before the boss arrives the report he should have completed the previous Friday.

The double-breasted creeper—"What's good about it?" he mumbles if anyone says "good morning" to him. He buries himself in a pile of papers. To this misanthropic human lump all work days are the same. He hates Friday because it gives him the problem of figuring what to do on Saturday and Sunday.

THE HIGH-FLYING kingfisher—The junior executive bounces in as cheerful as a small boy on a pogo stick. "Ah," he burbles, "what a chance to carve a niche in the hall of business fame."

The busy-fingered magpie—Too lazy to go to the stock room himself, he hops from desk to desk borrowing paper, pencils, typewriter ribbons, scissors, and paper clips to last him through the week. At each stop he also tries to borrow enough money to tide him over until payday.

THE TRIPLE-CRESTED nicker—The office straw boss, frustrated by two days of listening to his domineering wife, enters rubbing his hands with glee. He looks around at the huddle backs of his staff and murmurs, "I hardly know where to begin. Who'll I fly-speck first?"

Recognize yourself? Which Monday bird are you?

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

More People, Lower Taxes?

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

In the Feb. 9 issue of the Independent-Journal a reader writes: "It is true that taxes go higher and higher, but the more people you have, the more it costs to take care of them..."

Just because the total cost of government rises, it does not necessarily follow that the cost per person must rise. It is a general rule in economics that the more often one manufactures an article or supplies a service, the less expensive it becomes.

For instance: It costs more to make a million automobiles than it does to make a hundred. But each individual car costs less when you make a million cars than when you make only a hundred.

For another example consider the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. It must continually maintain a huge expansion program to keep pace with the population growth, yet the cost of a cubic foot of gas has gone down through the years when allowance is made for the decline in purchasing power of the dollar.

It is true that the more people you have the more it costs to govern them. But it should cost less per person, so taxes per person should go down.

Hasn't Been Much In Hospital

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

So Mrs. Neese had a baby at Marin General! Obviously, she has had no previous hospitalization, or very little!

She must have known that all hospitals have rules and regulations instituted for her protection, as well as for her baby. But, nevertheless, she is deeply hurt, because she is not permitted to have all the visitors she desires during her stay here.

She literally crucified the entire staff, including the Pink Lady organization! On Dec. 30, I had a fall and was brought here via ambulance. No, I have no intention of boring you with my problem, but after 39 days, I can walk again and have almost the full use of my right hand.

Did I despair? Did I feel neglected, etc., etc., etc.?

Of course! I, too, am also human. But because of my faith, my family, my doctor, the wonderful care of the nurses assigned to me, yes, the entire staff of this hospital, and my many friends, I'll soon be going home.

As far as the Pink Ladies, I suggest Mrs. Neese look into this organization, she will learn some very interesting things. And as a step further, visit this or any other hospital. I'm sure she will benefit much by what she will see, and realize how fortunate she was; at least she left here with her lovely baby.

Why No Movies Fit For Children?

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

When are we parents going to wake up? What is Marin County coming to when the only movie entertainment is "for adults only"?

Look at our four major theater marquee this particular (Feb. 17) weekend—they are all labeled "adult." This doesn't mean that at least three of them will "bar" children and teen-agers from entering and seeing the show—and we wonder at juvenile delinquency, sex crimes, and the growing loose morality of our times!

Youngsters look forward weekends to going to the neighborhood theaters, meeting their friends, and seeing an entertaining show. They fill 75 per cent of the audience. Now what—with the movies "for adults only"?

It's a sad and deplorable fact that many, many parents don't even check on the pictures their children see—it's "Friday night, kids' movie night!" Take a look into these "adult" movie houses this week—or any week—and you will still see the majority of the patrons are children and teen-agers.

For weeks I've watched the movie fare at our local theater with growing alarm and disgust—a combination of one "kid" picture and one "adult" story. I've had to deny my two teen-agers permission to attend, even though the one picture was one they had really wanted to see, just because of its accompanying feature. To make it worse, their friends were going—evidently THEIR parents hadn't checked the pictures—or didn't care.

I would say it's high time we "adults" do something constructive about this situation. There are two courses open to action, unless Hollywood censorship could perform its functions properly. Why not show "non-adult" or a "family type" show on weekends or on Friday nights, and the other "adult" pictures during the week?

The other thing we could do is encourage home gatherings. Many of us have space in a basement, garage, or rumpus room that we could allow our children to use. Let the kids work for their good times by decorating, preparing, hosting, and cleaning up when the evening's over. They can dance, play records, piano, sing, have games, pool their money for refreshments, and take turns being host or hostess.

Naturally, this calls for a parent or two around to chaperone (don't they have ushers in the theaters?).

How about it, parents, can we afford the time?

A crowded meeting of Fairfax residents in the city council chambers decided their town should continue its 31-year-old Fourth of July festival. But opinions were divided as to whether gambling should be allowed. The festival has raised $3,500 yearly, about 7½ cents per $100 on tax rolls.

Inclusion of Marin County in a congressional district comprising Sonoma, Solano, Napa and Lake Counties was favored by the Marin Democratic Central Committee.

BENNETT CERF

Walter Slezak visited Hollywood for a TV chore and while there, called an old, old friend to ask, "How's it going with you?"

"I was in a bad auto crash recently," reported the friend, "but I can't kick."

"With all that bad luck," marveled Slezak, "why do you keep telling me you can't kick?"

"Because," moaned the friend, "I'm in a cast from the waist down!"

Rumor has it that there's a big new TV series in the works concerning high jinks in the ladies' underwear business. It's called "The Unmentionables."

Here's One Jewel Of A Billboard Which Should Be Preserved

Though in firm opposition to the garish billboards which clutter up the edges of highways like refuse, I have come upon a jewel which should be preserved.

On DeLong Avenue, just off Highway 101 in Novato, it once boldly proclaimed its message. Now, almost hidden under white paint, but still to be seen is:

For Your Liver
Dr. Pierce's
Pleasant Pellets

MEMBERS OF Lu Sutton School P.T.A. came to a Novato School Board meeting to protest that their youngsters did not have an all-purpose room to play and eat in on wet days. Trustees said money was short, outside benches would be provided for now.

Mothers offered to personally deliver their kids' laundry, wet and dirty from outside play, to Supt. Bill Smith for him to wash, as laundry bills were running too high.

One trustee rose in righteousness to proclaim, "I move we reduce laundry bills." The motion died for lack of a second.

AT HAMILTON Air Force Base officers' club, the piano in the corner which used to be lost in shrubbery and bric-a-brac, now has a clear path around it.

Swinging gently in the breeze from the ceiling has been a sign "Harv's Pass," after chief clutter cutter Col. Harvey Henderson, base commander.

It leaves more room to play "Dead Dog." This is a fascinating little game where someone yells "Dead Dog!" Everyone heads for the floor.

Last one down buys the next round.

SOMEDAY, THEY'LL write a ballad, a true folk song, about Col. Tom Goetz. His derring-do seldom has been equaled.

Goetz headed for the floor some time ago at the scream of "Dead Dog!" Tales vary, but he either was unfortunately under a good-sized general or tried to break the general's fall.

Goetz broke his arm. He had just been relieved of the cast, according to the tales they tell. Somebody yelled "Dead Dog!" Goetz took off horizontally from the stage of the club and landed on the floor.

He broke it again. Combat duty was never like this.

THE FOLLOWING came up at the latest Novato Planning Commission meeting:

"A good friend of mine, who is a good friend of an assistant to the Secretary of Defense says..."

Wonder if he plays the stock market, too?

HOUSEWIVES IN Forrest Park and other Novato subdivisions lately have been entertained by the morning milk parade.

Seems Berkeley Farms Dairy has been soliciting orders, door to door. Following the salesman has been a string of two to five cars of opposition salesmen.

When the milkman started coming round, he too was followed by rival salesmen and milk men, at least one of whom offered to illegally cut the price of milk, if a customer would switch brands.

Republicans Throwing Away

One Of Their Strongest Weapons

WASHINGTON—The 34,000,000 voters who supported the Republican presidential nominee last November and others concerned about the healthy functioning of the two-party system ought to know that the Republican members of Congress are literally throwing away one of their most effective instruments of party strength.

They are permitting the majority to rule them off the course.

The minority leadership is acquiescing in a disability which strikes at its hands one of the best means of putting its case to the voters and which impairs its usefulness to the country.

IN PART THROUGH heedlessness and in part through connivance, the Republicans are failing to equip most of the principal policy-making committees of the House and the Senate with anything other than anemic, inadequate, and incompetent minority professional staffs.

Here is the central fact which reveals how true this is and how bad it is: Serving the 23 committees in the House of Representatives, the Democratic majority has a total staff of 285 professional advisers and experts, while the Republican minority has a total professional staff of 21.

It doesn't have to be that way. But for years the House Republican leadership has done nothing about it.

THIS MAY LOOK like a technical, housekeeping matter, having more to do with patronage than policy. But it is a key to the vitality and substance of Republican policy.

If the Republican members of Congress are ever to be in a position to clarify, expound, and defend their stand on the major issues presented by President Kennedy and to advance constructive alternatives of their own, they must get a steady flow of adequate, reliable, competent research and information from an adequate, reliable, and competent professional staff. This staff must be at the service of the minority, selected by the minority, and working for it.

The Republicans have nothing approaching such a staff today. They have lost it by default. They can get such a staff only when the Republican members of the House Administration Committee realize what they are throwing away — and do something about it.

IS ANYTHING going to be done about it?

At the beginning of the present Congress, Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of St. Louis, Mo., one of the most intelligent and respected Republican members of the House, who has long been pressing for action, wrote a new appeal to Minority Leader Charles Halleck in which he said:

"I urge that the staffing of committees with adequate and objective personnel by the majority and that the providing of staff personnel for the minority be made issues for which the Republicans will fight... Most of the ground work for this effort will have to be made by our minority members of the House Administration Committee."

So far Mr. Curtis's appeal has had all the impact of an echo in an empty canyon.

TOO MANY COOKS?
It's an old saying that "too many cooks spoil the broth." This can happen when too many people get involved in a real estate deal, too.

MULTIPLE LISTING
Makes it unnecessary for the buyer to contact a number of individual REALTORS to find the property of his choice. Because they pool their listings, all Multiple Listing Realtors have a complete selection of all types of homes, lots, apartments and income properties. They know the Marin County real estate market and are fully able to serve you.

WHEN YOU SELL
You can always depend on the courteous, competent service of your MULTIPLE LISTING REALTOR. When he lists your property through MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE you enjoy the services of 130 efficient, active offices working together to sell your property. THEN . . . as soon as an offer is made or a sale is completed your Realtor will be there to represent you.

Planners Pass Tentative Map Of Disputed Bel Marin Keyes

Approval was finally granted a tentative map of the 212-acre recreational Bel Marin Keyes subdivision yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission after lengthy discussion of jeopardies inherent in its location just north of Hamilton Air Force Base.

One commissioner confessed himself candidly confused, the planning director said maybe Uncle Sam should buy the land in question, the chairman suggested possible development of a new "N for noise" type zoning, and warnings were delivered by two Air Force spokesmen.

But two of the developers said they were convinced that airfield and subdivision could "live together."

The six commissioners were finally unanimous in voting approval, with some technical exceptions which must come before the board of supervisors at 2 p.m. next Tuesday.

"We are alert to the noise and have considered Hamilton quite carefully in our designs," said Jack H. West of the M. W. Finley Co., developers. "We feel that down on the flat the noise dissipates.

"For three months I have been living in the vicinity and I feel that the trains at night make the noise that bothers me most."

Planning Director Mary Summers introduced several letters from Don Dustman, for nine years operator of the nearby Marin Meadows Ranch, and persons living on the ranch saying that neither people nor animals had shown signs of being noise-troubled.

M. W. Finley said, "I sincerely believe the two properties (Bel Marin Keyes and Hamilton) can operate together peacefully."

"Nobody can say if the Hamilton noise will become injurious because our own medical people can't say," said Maj. Robert Senecal, public information officer at the air base.

"We didn't come here to fight this thing but we already have probably half a hundred letters objecting to noise of the field."

"There is a difference between civilian fields and ours. They can restrict their engines, we cannot. When we turn on an afterburner it is the equivalent of another engine."

Commissioner John S. Switzer, a retired army colonel, asked bluntly, "What is the probability of a crash?"

To this Maj. Charles E. Jerman, Hamilton civil engineer who first sounded the alarm at a Feb. 5 hearing, said the Air Force is very proud of its safety record but declined any personal opinion.

Major Senecal pointed out that the two critical times in flying are landing and takeoff and said "You're always concerned about areas adjacent. But 'it would be idiotic to tell you whether we were going to have a crash there.'"

"I'm perplexed about the whole business," said Switzer.

Major Senecal said the proposed development won't crowd Hamilton out "but you have a pattern" established by such growth, and it could eventually mean that Hamilton would have to move.

"If Hamilton is vital to national defense . . . then there is an obligation to buy this land," said Mrs. Summers.

Neither officer showed inclination to deal with the purchase problem.

Mrs. Summers stressed the view that any restriction to prohibit the use of the property would amount to "taking private property without paying for it."

Major Senecal said the Hamilton attitude was that as neighbors, the base should make clear that problems exist.

Finally Commissioner Neils Schultz moved approval of the map and the vote for it was unanimous.

Mill Valley To Study Data Processing Setup

Reports on possible adoption of a data processing system for handling assessment bond rolls will be presented to the Mill Valley City Council at its meeting at 8 o'clock tonight by City Treasurer William G. Rutherford and City Auditor Warren G. Le Fort.

The meeting is being held tonight because tomorrow, the regular meeting day, is a municipal office holiday for Washington's Birthday.

California income tax returns for the calendar year 1960 should be filed with the Franchise Tax Board, 1025 P Street, Sacramento 14, before Monday, April 17, 1961.

You are required to file a California income tax return if you are single and have a net income of $1,500 or over, or have a net income of $3,000 or over, or if in either case your gross income is $5,000 or over.

The determination of whether you are single or married is made as of the last day of the year. If you were married on Dec. 31, 1960, you are considered as being married for the full year.

If your spouse died during the year, then the determination of whether you are married is made at the date of death.

If you have separated, but had not received your final decree of divorce by Dec. 31, 1960, you are considered as being married.

The law imposes severe penalties for failing to make a return, or for making a false or fraudulent return, or for failing to file a return on time.

If you are required to file, it is better to file the return even though no tax may be due. Then you are sure.

Muir Group Wants To Review Study Of Incorporation

The Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. will ask the Tiburon Coordinating Council for permission to review a survey being made for the council by the firm of Griffenhagen-Kroeger, Inc. with regard to the feasibility of incorporation of the Tiburon Peninsula, Bill Johnson, board director, said today.

Johnson said the association decided upon this Friday with the idea of determining what effect incorporation would have on the county tax rate. "Incorporation could mean a loss of sales and gasoline taxes to the county," Johnson said.

Arthur K. Smart was appointed delegate to the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs.

In Army Maneuvers

Pfc. Jesse C. Thompson, son of Ollie N. Thompson of 516 Summit Drive, Mill Valley, recently completed winter maneuvers with the Eighth Army Division's 505th Infantry at the Grafenwohr-Hohenfels area in Germany.
